THE YOUTH'S TEMPERANCE BANNER.

THE National Temperance Society and Publication House publish a beautifully-illustrated four-page Monthly Paper for Children and Youths Sabbath-schools, and Juvenile Temperance Organizations. Each number contains several choice engravings, a piece of music, and a great variety of articles from the pens of the best writers for children in America.

Its object is to make the temperance work and education a part of the religious culture and training of the Sabbath-school and family circle, that the children may be early taught to shun the intoxicating cup, and walk in the path of truth, soberness, and righteousness.

The following are some of the writers for THE BANNER: Mrs. J. P. Ballard (Kruna), Miss M. D. Chellis, Mrs. Nellie H. Bradley, Rev. Wm. M. Thayer, Edward Carswell, Geo. W. Bungay, J. H. Kellogg, Mrs. J. E. McConaughy, Mrs. M. A. Dennison, Mrs. E. J. Richmond, Rev. S. B. S. Bissell, Rev. Alfred Taylor, Mrs. M. A. Kidder, etc., etc.

THE BANNER has already been welcomed into thousands of Sabbath-schools of all denominations as the only Youth's Temperance Paper published for Sabbath-schools.

The National Society being composed of a Board of thirty Managers, of which Hon. Wm. E. Dodge is chairman, and representing all denominations and Temperance Organizations, its publications should find a place in every Sabbath-school in the land.

Terms, cash in advance, including postage:

Single copy, one year.....	$0 35	Fifteen copies, to one address....	$2 03	Forty copies, to one address.....	$5 40
Eight copies, to one address.....	1 08	Twenty copies, " "	2 70	Fifty copies, " "	6 75
Ten copies, " "	1 35	Thirty copies, " "	4 05	One Hundred, " "	13 00

We trust the friends of Temperance and Sunday-schools will make the effort to introduce THE BANNER into every Sunday-school in their midst, as the price at which it is published—which does not cover the cost of paper and printing—prevents the sending of agents to introduce it.

THE NATIONAL TEMPERANCE ADVOCATE.

THE National Temperance Society and Publication House publish a monthly paper devoted to the interests of the Temperance Reform, which contains articles upon every phase of the movement from the pens of some of the ablest writers in America, among whom are: Rev. T. L. Cuyler, D.D., Dr. Charles Jewett, Rev. Wm. Goodell, A. M. Powell, Rev. Peter Stryker, Rev. J. B. Dunn, Rev. Wm. M. Thayer, Rev. Wm. Patton, D.D., Geo. W. Bungay, Mrs. F. M. Bradley, Miss M. D. Chellis, Kruna, etc., etc.

It also contains a history of the progress of the movement from month to month in all of the States, which is of great value to every worker in the cause and to those who are in any way interested in the work, and no pains will be spared to make this full of the most valuable information to all classes in the community.

Terms (cash in advance), including postage: One dollar and ten cents per year for single copies; ten copies to one address, $10; twenty copies to one address, $18; all over twenty copies at 90 cents per copy.

SEWALL'S STOMACH PLATES.

The National Temperance Society and Publication House have just republished the celebrated lithographic Drawings of the Human Stomach, showing the effects of intoxicating liquors, from the first inception of disease occasioned thereby, to death by delirium tremens. We have had repeated applications for them during the past few years, and have now reproduced them in the original form. The Drawings are eight in number. Size, 27 by 34 inches.

No. 1 represents the internal coat of the stomach in a healthy state, drawn from an individual who had lived an entirely temperate life.

No. 2 shows a portion of the internal coat of the stomach of the "Temperate Drinker," who drinks moderately daily, and sips wine at dinner.

No. 3 represents the stomach of the habitual drunkard, with greatly enlarged and distended blood-vessels.

No. 4 shows the inner coat of the stomach of a "hard drinker," corroded with small ulcers, and otherwise much inflamed.

No. 5 represents the stomach after a debauch of several days—appearing as though it were "on fire of hell."

Nos. 6 and 7 represent the stomach of a sea-captain, an habitual drinker of spirits, often in an undiluted state—the stomach thickened and scirrhous, with a corroding cancer of frightful aspect.

No. 8 represents the internal coat of the stomach of a drunkard who had died in a state of delirium tremens. It shows the stomach to have been in a state of extreme inflammation before death—in some points dark, as if in an incipient stage of mortification. A more striking contrast, compared with the healthy stomach, it would be impossible to imagine.

These Drawings are not the production of mere fancy, but are the result of actual scientific research and investigation, in one living case (that of Alexis St. Martin, in the year 1822), and of others immediately after death. They are invaluable to every student, scientific and medical man, and especially to those who are lecturing upon physiology or temperance. They should be in the possession of every College, School, Temperance Society, and Reading-room, in the land. Price, $12 per set, plain paper; $15, mounted and on rollers.

The above prices are for single Globes, Terrestrial or Celestial. A Quadrant for measuring distances, finding the itude of the heavenly bodies, and of use in working problems, should accompany every single Globe or pair of obes larger than six inches in diameter.

The following are some of the Advantages these Globes have over others:

Superiority of manufacture, the result of an experience of over thirty years.

The Maps are more distinct than others, being printed on copper, not on stone.

The Meridians are all brass, and not iron, properly lacquered to avoid tarnishing.

We warrant them against cracking, a common failing with Globes not properly made.

All foreign Globes check in our climate.

We supply both Terrestrial and Celestial, of all sizes except the 30-inch.

Also, furnish Quadrants for all sizes except 6-inch. The Terrestrial plates are engraved to a later date than others. Considering the length of time that a Globe lasts, it is important that they should be modern when purchased.

The following important additions and corrections have been made: New boundaries of Germany, France, Prussia, Austria and Russia; Rome named as capital of Italy; capital of Nebraska and Louisiana changed; Pacific railroad and Submarine cables laid down; Alaska and New Territories; important discoveries in Africa; correct names of countries, as Dominion of Canada, British Columbia, United States of Columbia, and the Argentine Confederation.

The 30 Inch Globe (Terrestrial only) is very plainly engraved, and handsomely mounted on a solid Black Walnut frame. It is the largest ever made in this country, and presents quite an imposing appearance; it is appropriate for public rooms, literary institutions, hotels, saloons of steamers, as well as the large schools and colleges.

New or proposed lines of railroads, submarine or overland telegraphs, can be laid down to order.

Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

The 16 Inch Globes (Terrestrial and Celestial) are, without exception, the most valuable globes, either of home or foreign manufacture, ever offered to the public. They are very finely engraved. The terrestrial is more complete than any other globe, having the Isothermal lines of temperature, and the deep sea soundings, which are not laid down on any other globe. It is, unquestionably, more useful for daily reference than a map, showing, at a glance, the relative positions of different countries, their boundaries, and their latitude and longitude.

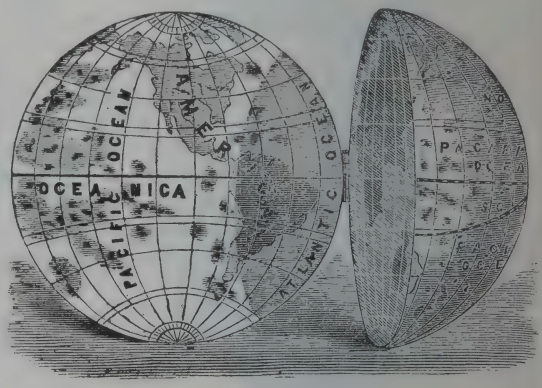
The Terrestrial plate is so very full that no additions can be made to it without interfering with that already laid down. Some corrections have been and are now being made of boundaries, names, etc. This globe, especially on the Bronze Pedestal frame, is particularly appropriate as an ornament to a private library, it is also much in demand by the higher grade of literary institutions, and has been largely ordered for the Naval service.

The 12 Inch Globe (Terrestrial and Celestial.) This size is the most popular for common schools and academies. In getting up these plates we determined to excel, in accuracy and beauty of finish, any other globe made of this diameter.

The 10 Inch Globes (Terrestrial and Celestial.) The Terrestrial give the several boundaries of the United States and Territories, which are not found on any other globes of the same size. It exhibits the boundaries of Empires, Kingdoms and Republics, as laid down on the latest maps by the best geographers. This, with the Celestial, answers a good purpose in schools and families to illustrate geography and astronomy.



The Six Inch Globe (Terrestrial and Celestial.) The Terrestrial gives recent changes, new States, etc., is well suited to common schools, and makes one of the most useful gifts that can be presented to a boy or girl in these days of popular education.

Our Terrestrial Globes are brought down to a more recent date than any other globes that are in the market.

The leading dealers in School Furniture in the large cities give our Globes the preference over all others, their experience teaching them that they are the only Globes that give perfect satisfaction to their customers.

MRS. WHITNEY'S NEW STORY.

SIGHTS AND INSIGHTS:

Patience Strong's Story of Over the Way.

By Mrs. A. D. T. WHITNEY,

Author of "The Other Girls," "We Girls," "Real Folks," "Leslie Goldthwaite," &c.

2 vols. 12mo. $3.00.

This story opens in New England; but the scene soon changes to Europe, where it continues. Charming descriptions of picturesque views, and a delightful love-story, form the warp and woof of this new work by Mrs. Whitney. It is peculiarly fresh and interesting, and is conspicuously rich in those qualities of humor, cheerfulness, hope, looking into the heart of things, and trying to win the best from all the experiences and opportunities of life, which have gained for Mrs. Whitney troops of admiring readers all through the land.

"If there is any other American writer who so thoroughly understands girls as Mrs. Whitney, we have yet to see the evidence of his or her knowledge. She writes as if the experiences of her own youth were as fresh in her mind as if that time were only yesterday, and 'puts herself in the place' of her heroines with an aptness and fidelity that command the reader's constant admiration. Accompanying this rare sympathetic comprehension of her subject, there is an air of purity and refinement surrounding all Mrs. Whitney writes, that we have not detected in any other writer for the young. So far as our observation of her books extends, they contain not one line, 'which, dying, she would wish to blot,' — no coarseness, no sentiment of questionable morality, no gilding of vice or evil, no apology for wrong: all are penetrated with a spirit of beautifying purity, a sort of moral clearness, that is most delightful to recognize." — Literary World.

"Such books as hers should be in every household, to be read, loaned, re-read, and re-loaned, so long as the leaves and cover will hold together, — not holiday volumes for elegant quiet, but stirring and aggressive works, with a 'mission,' which is to make the world better than they find it." — Boston Commonwealth.

"The merits of the series of Hand-Books for Travellers which Osgood & Co are issuing are great and striking, and are bringing the volumes into deserved and constantly increasing notice. They are comprehensive, thoroughly reliable, excellently written, and convey precisely the information which the tourist most desires. Their form is convenient; and the maps and plans which accompany them are well executed. The latest in the series is the White Mountains Hand-Book, by far the best guide-book to that region ever published. The routes are fully explained; requisite data for the calculation of expenses are given; and the descriptions of scenery leave nothing to be desired." — Portland Press.

"The method of these guide-books is perfect, and the execution as nearly so as possible. To foreigners visiting America, the series is simply indispensable." — The Congregationalist (Boston).

HISTORY OF INDEPENDENCE HALL, PHILADELPHIA.

By F. M. Etting. One volume, square 4to. Illustrated with many Woodcuts and Heliotypes. $5.00.

"Independence Hall has a history which deserved to be written clearly and intelligently. Col. Etting's monograph on the subject is an interesting and praiseworthy contribution to Centennial literature. It tells the story of the hall, and the various changes through which the building has passed, in an attractive way, and with abundant reference to the general history of our Revolutionary struggle; and it is profusely and beautifully illustrated with heliotypes, woodcuts, and facsimiles of autographs and printed documents." — Boston Advertiser.

BÆDEKER'S PALESTINE AND SYRIA.

18 Maps, 43 Plans, a Panorama of Jerusalem, and 10 Views. $7.50.

Bædeker's new Guide-book of Palestine and Syria is a perfect cyclopædia of information respecting the Holy Land, its geography, history, fauna, flora, inhabitants, and whatever is of interest or importance to travellers. Its comprehensiveness and accuracy, with its numerous maps, plans, and views, give it remarkable value for all students of the Bible, and readers of the history of the Holy Land.

A STUDY OF HAWTHORNE.

By George P. Lathrop. Uniform with "Little Classic" edition of Hawthorne's Works. With view of Hawthorne's birthplace. $1.25.

"Mr. Lathrop has done the reading public a genuine service in the preparation of his very agreeable little book about Hawthorne.

"No other writer has studied Hawthorne's character and genius more diligently than Mr. Lathrop has done; and no other has had opportunities so good for making the study productive of valuable results.

"The volume is not a biography. Hawthorne's expressed desire, that no life of himself should ever be written, forbade that; and yet it is biographical in an important sense, and serves all the best purposes of a formal life-story. It shows us Hawthorne the man no less truly than Hawthorne the author; and that is precisely what was most wanted." — New York Evening Post.

ROADSIDE POEMS

For Summer Travellers. Edited by Lucy Larcom. Uniform with the "Little Classics." $1.00.

"In this little volume, Miss Larcom has gathered from the whole field of English and American poetry more than a hundred and fifty poems depicting the varied charms of mountains, meadows, hills, plains, forests, streams, flowers, clouds, and other picturesque objects in Nature. The scope and excellence of the volume give it a special value for summer tourists, emphasizing and interpreting for them the majestic and beautiful scenes through which their summer travel may lead them.

"LITTLE CLASSIC" EMERSON.

I. The Conduct of Life. $1.50.
II. Society and Solitude. $1.50.
III. Miscellanies. $1.50.
IV. Essays. First Series. $1.50.

"It is unnecessary to enlarge upon the wonderful power of Emerson's writings. He is, doubtless, the deepest and most original thinker of whom America can boast; and his works are of the utmost value to the cultured man, on account of their remarkable stimulating and suggestive qualities. No intelligent man or woman should fail to be a close and constant student of Emerson; and the Messrs. Osgood now offer the public a most excellent opportunity to obtain a uniform and beautiful edition of his writings at a moderate price." — New Haven Journal and Courier.

TWO NEW HAWTHORNE VOLUMES.

The Dolliver Romance, and other Pieces. By NATHANIEL HAWTHORNE. 1 vol. 16mo. $1 50

Fanshawe, and other Pieces. By NATHANIEL HAWTHORNE. 1 vol. 16mo. $1.50.

These volumes are virtually new; very few readers of the present generation ever having read any part of them, except the noble fragments of "The Dolliver Romance." "Fanshawe" possesses a peculiar interest, being the first story Hawthorne ever wrote and never really published. The shorter stories, essays, and sketches are genuine products of the distinctive Hawthorne genius.

LIFE, LETTERS, AND JOURNALS OF GEORGE TICKNOR.

6th Edition. With Portraits. 2 vols. 8vo. $6.00.

"These volumes possess an interest as wide as the world of letters itself, from the fact that they give most interesting characterizations, reminiscences, and anecdotes of hundreds of persons on both continents, whose names are familiar as authors, students, philosophers, politicians, statesmen, and men and women of society." — Boston Journal.

"The very best book of its class that has ever come over to us from America." — London Athenæum.

THE UNSEEN WORLD, AND OTHER ESSAYS.

By JOHN FISKE. 12mo. $2.00.

"One of the really strong and valuable books of the year." — Boston Advertiser.

AMONG MY BOOKS.

Second Series. By JAMES RUSSELL LOWELL. $2.00.

DANTE.—SPENSER.—WORDSWORTH.—MILTON.—KEATS.

A PAYING INVESTMENT.

By ANNA E. DICKINSON. $1.00.

"A book full of suggestions, bright, keen, earnest thoughts worth heeding." — Springfield Republican.

SIGHTS AND INSIGHTS: Patience Strong's Story of Over the Way.

By Mrs. A. D. T. WHITNEY, Author of "Leslie Goldthwaite," "We Girls," &c.

2 vols. 12mo. $3.00.

ONE SUMMER.

By BLANCHE WILLIS HOWARD. $1.25.

This delightful story has already had a very large circulation, but retains its popularity undiminished.

THE VEST-POCKET SERIES.

These miniature volumes are of the same general order with the "Little Classics," which have proved so universally popular, but smaller every way, except in type. Their typographical beauty, fine paper, tasteful binding, dainty size, and, yet more, the sterling and popular character of their contents, have gained for them a general welcome.

Vol 1. Snow-Bound. By J. G. WHITTIER.
2. Evangeline. By H. W. LONGFELLOW.
3. Power, Wealth, Illusions. By R. W. EMERSON.

7. Nathaniel Hawthorne. By JAMES T. FIELDS.
8. A Day's Pleasure. By W. D. HOWELLS.
9. The Vision of Sir Launfal. By J. R. LOWELL.
10. A Christmas Carol. By CHARLES DICKENS.
11. Lady Geraldine's Courtship. By ELIZABETH BARRETT BROWNING.
12. The Deserted Village and The Traveller. By OLIVER GOLDSMITH.
13. Rab and his Friends and Marjorie Fleming. By Dr. JOHN BROWN.

"Osgood's 'Vest-Pocket Series' deserve the heartiest appreciation, and will doubtless receive it. They are small, dainty, sightly, and — rarest quality of small books — legible. The type is as large as the largest used in the 'Christian Union,' and yet, by an excusable disregard of the traditional width of margin, each little page contains a great deal of reading-matter. We hope the series will be enlarged as long as good material exists with which to extend it. Generally a book is companionable in exact ratio with its unobtrusiveness, and the faculty it has for being always with us. A traveller without trunk or valise might carry a dozen of these little books without disarranging his pockets, and be sure of that literary enjoyment which the stores of train-boy or railway-station news-agent never afford." — The Christian Union.

"For pocket volumes, to be carried about on journeys and read by snatches, to be taken to the country or seashore in summer, or to be read by the fireside in winter, these little books satisfy all the requirements of convenient size, attractive exterior, and intrinsic interest and value." — Boston Journal.

"The 'Vest-Pocket Series' is a most skilfully contrived and neatly arranged plan for bringing the best prose and verse into the reach of all readers. That it will succeed is as certain as that it ought to succeed, and the spread of our best literature is a missionary work than which no other whatever is more important. By such publications as these the Osgoods are doing a greater benefit to the country than can be calculated." — Hartford Courant.

"These tiny books are not made by means of fine type and flimsy paper. The paper is heavy and firm, and the type is wonderfully clear and legible. In fact, it looks large. These beautiful little books must be accorded rank as the gold dollars of the currency of elegant letters. Yet they cost but fifty cents apiece." — Congregationalist (Boston).

"The most attractive of all the new books of the season." — Louisville Courier-Journal.

"We have rarely seen any thing more exquisite in the shape of miniature editions of authors than the 'Vest-Pocket Series.'" — New York Evening Mail.

"Volumes of such dainty shape that one might suppose them ordered for the inhabitants of Liliput. Queen Mab could be fancied wisely perusing such fairy-like tomes, as she lazily lounges in a white lily's hollow." — Chicago Tribune.

Too much praise cannot be accorded the projectors of this series. It lays, for a very small sum, the cream of the best writers before the reader of average means. It usually happens that very few, except professional people and scholars, care to read all that even the most famous men have written. They want his best work,—the one people talk most about; and when they have read that they are satisfied.—New York Commercial Advertiser.

The whole form a bijou library of literary delights, such as has never before been gathered. The dozen volumes preceding these final issues, comprise the cream of our literature in the way of short tales and sketches. Added to them, we now have three volumes of choicest poetry. Altogether, we can cordially commend the "Little Classics" to all lovers of the best things in books.—Buffalo Courier.

We advise all who intend to journey by land or sea, to remember Osgood's "Little Classics," which are books, of all others, for the pocket or the satchel.—Boston Congregationalist.

There is no other collection of short stories equal in value and variety to those contained in these neat one-dollar volumes.—Boston Advertiser.

These dainty little books recommend themselves to all lovers of what is best and purest in our literature.—Worcester Palladium.

In these small books there is embraced a whole rare specimen of the best modern English literature. Whoever buys the series will have a condensed library in the purchase, which will give pleasure and instruction more than can be easily estimated.

We cannot speak too highly of this series of "Little Classics;" and those who buy the books will thank us for our warm commendation.—Boston Pilot.

The contents are so good, and the dress of the volumes is so attractive, that it is difficult to see how any one with literary tastes can forego the purchase of the entire series. For a gift to his children, no parent could do better than to buy this set of literary gems.—Troy Times.

"LITTLE CLASSIC" HAWTHORNE.

"We are beginning to arrive at some faint sense of Hawthorne's greatness — immeasurably vaster than that of any other American who ever wrote."

"Hawthorne's art was so perfect and his fancy so exuberant that the children of his brain are exempt from the brief duration of life which usually is the fate of tales of romance. His colors do not fade, because, like the Old Masters, he had conquered the art of making them of the most durable material, and of laying them on with rare skill. His English is as transparent, flowing, robust, graceful, and wondrously flexible as it seemed to a generation ago; and for this reason the creations which he has embalmed in it will be as popular with the next generation as they were with the last, and his writings will rank as classics with after generations." — The Christian Intelligencer (New York).

"These make a handsome display on the library shelf, and the whole cost so little that it cannot be doubted that many new readers will hasten to embrace the opportunity thus offered of becoming acquainted with the great prose masterpieces of American literature. . . . Nothing could exceed its neatness, daintiness, and convenience." — Appletons' Journal.

"Its clear typography and tinted paper make the page a bright and pleasant one, while the tasteful, flexible cover and red edges give a peculiarly dainty external appearance to the volumes. No lover of Hawthorne who has not yet secured his complete works should neglect to examine the 'Little Classic' edition." — Buffalo Courier.

"Never was an edition more convenient to the hand, or agreeable to the eye, with its excellent paper, clear type, and perfect print." — JOHN G. SAXE.

"With such winsome exteriors and valuable contents, these little books must find a multitude of customers." — Chicago Tribune.

"This edition has met with the most unbounded favor." — N. Y. Herald.

"There is an indescribable fascination in the form and neatness of this edition." — Boston Traveller.

EMERSON'S WORKS.

"LITTLE CLASSIC" EDITION.

The popular favor shown to the "LITTLE CLASSICS," and to the "Little Classic" edition of HAWTHORNE'S Works, has suggested the propriety of issuing, in the same tasteful and inexpensive style, the Works of Mr. Emerson. The rapid sale of his latest volume of Essays, "Letters and Social Aims," gives most ample and gratifying proof that his hold upon the esteem and admiring interest of the American public has never been stronger than to-day. It is believed that a popular edition of his previous volumes will be very generally welcomed. This "LITTLE CLASSIC" Edition is printed from entirely new electrotype plates, and will comprise VIOLLET-LE-DUC'S WORKS.

THE STORY OF A HOUSE. Illustrated by the Author. Translated by GEORGE M. TOWLE. 1 vol. 8vo., bevelled boards, red edges, $5.00.

"The basis of the story is the building of a château on the true principles of architecture. With varied characters for his mouthpieces, the author is able to lend fresh attractions to the study of his beautiful art, to point out the difficulties and prejudices and misunderstandings to which architects are exposed, to discuss his pet theories, and impress his favorite rules without suspicion of egotism; and all this through the medium of piquant conversations, by which the reader is so well entertained that he forgets he is being instructed. The unpretentious earnestness, simple wisdom, and sound practical information, which light up every page, together with the artistic illustrations prepared by the same master hand, make this latest work of Monsieur Viollet-le-Duc the most attractive text-book of architecture that has ever come under our notice." — American Builder (New York).

ANNALS OF A FORTRESS. Translated by BENJAMIN BUCKNALL, Architect. 1 vol. 8vo. Eighty-five illustrations, several in colors. $5.00.

"Those who read the book through carefully, by the help of the beautiful illustrations with which it is lavishly embellished, will not only obtain an excellent idea of the spirit of mediæval architecture, but a better knowledge of the art of fortification, from the earliest ages up to recent times, than could be found in any other way short of the research and study which the author has himself given to the matter. M. Viollet-le-Duc is master of the subject, and imparts his learning in a thoroughly fascinating manner." — Saturday Review (London).

THE HABITATIONS OF MAN IN ALL AGES. Translated by BENJAMIN BUCKNALL. Profusely illustrated. 1 vol. 8vo. $5.00.

"Viollet-le-Duc has the gift of making a technical subject popularly interesting, and surrounding the driest details of mechanical art with an atmosphere of romance, through which even beams and joists and clapboards seem picturesque. His latest volume is called 'The Habitations of Man in all Ages.' Beginning with the bush shelter, the protoplasm, as it were, of architecture, he traces with pen and pencil the development of the dwelling-house in all ages and countries. It is a work of surpassing interest and value for all intelligent persons, whether they know any thing of architecture or not." — New York Evening Post.

DISCOURSES ON ARCHITECTURE. Translated, with an Introductory Essay, by HENRY VAN BRUNT, Fellow American Institute of Architects. Fully illustrated. 1 vol. royal 8vo. $8.00.

"We have no hesitation in saying deliberately, and without qualification, that no work of any thing like equal value to American architects has ever been published in this country; none from the study of which they and all lovers of art may derive so many, so durable, and so important lessons for the elevation and perfection of their art. The work is illustrated by plates, many of which are from rare subjects, and all from the most perfect specimens known in the history of the art, and among which are the following: The Lydian Sarcophagus, The Pantheon, The Baths of Antoninus and Caracalla, The Basilica of Fano, The Cathedral of Vezelay; Sections, The Church of St. Eutropius at Saintes, The Cathedral of Peterborough, The Cathedral of Paris, The Château of Boulogne, and the Palace of the Tuileries." — Christian Intelligencer (New York).

"'Saunterings' is one of the most entertaining works of the season. The observation, the homely philosophy, the quiet humor, the mellowness, which made 'My Summer in a Garden' at once widely known and popular, are all to be found in the present volume."—N. Y. Evening Post.

His observation is close and accurate; his knowledge of women is simply marvellous; he is an artist in his description of scenery."—Boston Advertiser.

Their Wedding Journey. By W. D. Howells. $1.25.

But whether the traveller goes to these isles or not, if he has this little volume in his pocket, wherever he is, he will have a most charming companion."—Hartford Courant.

There are nearly half a hundred poems in the dainty volume, of all lengths, several of them sketches of stories, in which Mr. Howells's genius serves admirably."—N. Y. Evening Mail.

"Hap-hazard it may be in topic, but not in treatment. Kate Field writes always with vivacity, sprightliness, and entertainment. Her lively sketches are chapters of personal experience and travel, and have a freshness, glow, and spirit which are charming."—Albany Journal.

One Summer. By Blanche Willis Howard. $1.25.

"It is one of those fresh and breezy love-stories one meets with but twice or thrice in a life-time. Altogether, for charm of style, simplicity of diction, and pleasantness of plot, the book is quite inimitable."—Rocky Mountain News.

"One of the best of summer novels. If we are not mistaken, it will be borrowed and lent around, and laughed over, and possibly cried over, and hugely enjoyed, by all who get a chance to read it."—The Liberal Christian.

Ten Days in Spain. By Kate Field. $1.25.

"A volume which, beyond its vivacious and sparkling description of a journey, contains shrewd observations on men, manners, and the signs of the times, and more valuable information elicited from the experiences of 'ten days,' than many wise men derive from the studies and out-looks of ten years."—Providence Journal.

Whip and Spur. By Col. Geo. E. Waring, Jr. $1.25.

"Here is a style which you cannot precisely call literary, and which yet has in it the best literary qualities,—freshness, directness, pure and clean-cut English, with a sense of form and self-restraint and a natural instinct for a telling phrase. The whole book is charged with oxygen, and the style carries you on, with a sort of easy cavalry gait, from beginning to end. Col. Waring's horses are like Dr. John Brown's dogs,—Rab and his friends, for instance,—genuine and half human creatures. The career of each seems as individual and interesting as that of a child."—T. W. HIGGINSON.

Baddeck, and that Sort of Thing. By Charles Dudley Warner. $1.00.

"For perfect drollery of situation and sentiment, and the daintiest surprises of fun, and for the traveller's good-humored perception of absurdities, told with sprightliness and the most charming abandon, we account Mr. Warner's description of his pilgrimage to Baddeck as one of the most wittily playful things in our literature since the 'Sentimental Journey.'"—Christian Union.

South-Sea Idyls. By Charles Warren Stoddard. $1.25.

"Of all the dreamlands in the world this author has chosen the dreamiest. He has made himself the laureate of the Pacific islands,—the first interpreter, whether in prose or verse, of that lazy charm, that very perfection of lotus-eating, that characterizes life in Tahiti and the Hawaiian group, and the other 'summer Isles of Eden' that lie in the great Western ocean."—Appletons' Journal.

Gunnar: A Norse Romance. By H. H. Boyesen. $1.25.

"The scene is almost entirely among the Norwegian peasants; the plot is the love of a tenant's son for the daughter of a rich peasant land-owner, and relates to Gunnar's growth from a dreamy boyhood to the manhood of a young painter, who comes back from Christiania crowned with academic glories, and weds his faithful Ragnhild. The landscapes and customs of Norway are constantly sketched, and the glamour of the folk-lore is softly shed over all from a memory stored full of the wild superstitions of the North."—Atlantic Monthly.

JAMES R. OSGOOD & CO.

Guide-Books for Home and Foreign Travel.

American Guide-Books.

"Osgood's American Hand-Books certainly realize the ideal of what a good guide-book should be about as closely as we are likely to have ideals of any sort realized in this world. The plan of these books is modelled after the Bædeker European Guide-Books, with such changes as are necessary to suit the wants of tourists in America. Compact, comprehensive, portable; legibly printed, with variations of type to distinguish the less important portions; containing the maximum of information in the minimum of space; faithful and picturesque in description, with occasional quotations from the best writers, aptly selected; furnishing every needed detail as to railroad routes and fares, routes of steamboat travel, hotel rates, and hack charges; and liberally supplied with maps and plans of cities, — these little books contain every thing which the traveller wants to know in precisely the shape he wants to have it."— Boston Journal.

"A very excellent book, containing probably the best brief history of the English Revolution that is to be found. It has two conspicuous merits that are not always found together. It is very good in its treatment of constitutional points, and it is full of well-selected and interesting incidents. A very instructive table at the beginning gives an analysis of the English Government in the 17th century, in which the arbitrary features are distinguished from those that rest upon law. . . . The battles are well described and illustrated with a number of plans—a peculiarly valuable feature, as we do not remember any generally accessible book that contains them. . . . The book is always interesting."—The Nation, New York.

LIFE AND REIGN

NICHOLAS I.,

EMPEROR OF RUSSIA.

By SAMUEL M. SCHMUCKER, LL. D.,

Author of the "Public and Private History of Louis Napoleon," etc. etc.

With illustrations. 12mo. Cloth, price $1 75.

No other complete history of the Life and Reign of Nicholas I. has appeared in our language, and we think it will readily be admitted that so great a personage and so remarkable a man deserved the labored and complete record which the author has here endeavored to give him.

LIFE AND TIMES OF

GEORGE

WASHINGTON.

By SAMUEL M. SCHMUCKER, LL. D.,

Author of the "Life and Times of Alexander Hamilton," etc. etc.

WITH PORTRAIT ON STEEL.

12mo. Cloth, price $1 75.

The Life and Public Services of Washington constitute one of those immortal themes which no lapse of time or vicissitude of human affairs can deprive of their resistless hold upon the attention and admiration of mankind.

LIFE AND TIMES OF ALEXANDER

HAMILTON.

By S. M. SCHMUCKER, LL. D.

WITH PORTRAIT ON STEEL.

12mo. Cloth, price $1 75.

The remarkable incidents of Hamilton's career will never lose their singular power to attract and instruct mankind, for they furnish impressive lessons both of the brightest and the basest elements of human character. The brightest all appertained to himself; the basest belonged to those by whom he was surrounded and assailed.

LIFE AND TIMES OF

THOMAS

JEFFERSON.

By S. M. SCHMUCKER, LL. D.,

Author of "Life of Hamilton," etc.

With Portrait. 12mo. Cloth, price $1 75.

Thomas Jefferson was one of the great representative heroes of the age in which he lived. He will always remain a very prominent and remarkable character in American history, and the author, in the pages of this work, has endeavored to present both his merits and his defects in their true light.

LIFE OF BENJAMIN

FRANKLIN,

The Celebrated Statesman and Philosopher.

By O. L. HOLLEY.

WITH PORTRAIT ON STEEL AND ILLUSTRATIONS ON WOOD.

12mo. Cloth, price $1 75.

Of humble origin, with no early opportunities of education beyond the simplest rudiments of knowledge, no man probably was ever more eminently and uniformly successful, throughout the whole of a very long life, in attaining the chief objects of human pursuit, than Benjamin Franklin. The sources of his success and the elements of his greatness are rich beyond parallel in lessons of practical wisdom for all, of every age, calling, and condition in life, public and private, in every coming generation.

PUBLIC AND PRIVATE LIFE

OF

DANIEL WEBSTER,

Including most of his great Speeches and Letters.

By GENERAL S. P. LYMAN.

Two volumes in one. With illustrations. 12mo.

Cloth, price $1 75.

A great man is a gift—in some measure, a revelation of God. A great man living for high ends is the divinest thing that can be seen on earth. No public man ever earned more fully the title of a national, an American statesman than Daniel Webster. No heart ever beat with a higher national spirit than his. The honor of his country was as dear to him as the faces of his children. Where that was in question his great powers blazed forth like a flame of fire in its defence. Never were his words more weighty, his logic more irresistible, his eloquence more lofty—never did his mind move with more majestic and victorious flight than when vindicating the rights of his country, or shielding her from unjust aspersions. No library is complete without his life.

LIFE AND TIME
OF HENRY CLAY.

By S. M. SCHMUCKER, LL. D.,
Author of "Public and Private History of Louis Napoleon," "History of the Four Georges," etc.

With Portrait on Steel.

12mo. Cloth, price $1 75.

A great orator lives in his speeches; an eminent statesman in the wise and patriotic measures which he may have devised and advocated. The author of this work has endeavored to combine together such a proportion of both these kinds of achievements in Henry Clay as will reproduce most successfully the peculiar individuality of the man.

LIFE AND PUBLIC SERVICES
Stephen A. Douglas,

With his various Speeches and Reports,
AND INCLUDING HIS
Last Speech in Congress, January 3, 1861, upon the then alarming state of the country.

By H. M. FLINT.

WITH PORTRAIT ON STEEL

12mo. Cloth, price $1 75.

The career of Mr. Douglas as a statesman will ever form a brilliant and familiar portion of our country's history. He was always in earnest, ever on fire. As an extempore speaker, his capabilities were transcendent and amazing, and unquestionably placed him in the first rank of debaters of any age and country. Less eloquent than Clay, less logical than Webster, less versatile than Benton, he was the superior of them all in the readiness of his intellect and the distinctness and clearness of his statements.

LIFE AND PUBLIC SERVICES OF ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

Sixteenth President of the United States.

Containing his early History and Political Career; together with the Speeches, Messages, Proclamations, and other official documents illustrative of his eventful administration.

By FRANK CROSBY, of the Philadelphia Bar.

WITH PORTRAIT ON STEEL.

12mo. Cloth, price $1 75.

"The book is of convenient size, admirably arranged for reference, having besides its regular table of contents by chapters and pages, an index at the top of each page, from which the reader can gain an idea of its contents as he glances through the book."—Rochester Democrat.

LIFE OF DANIEL BOONE,

The Great Western Hunter and Pioneer.

COMPRISING
An account of his early history, his daring and remarkable career as the first settler of Kentucky, his thrilling adventures with the Indians, and his wonderful skill, coolness, and sagacity under all the hazardous and trying circumstances of Western Border Life.

By CECIL B. HARTLEY.

To which is added his Autobiography complete as dictated by himself, and showing his own belief that he was an instrument in the hands of Providence, ordained to settle the Wilderness.

With Illustrations. 12mo. Cloth, price $1 75.

LIFE OF
COLONEL DAVID
CROCKETT,

THE ORIGINAL HUMORIST AND IRREPRESSIBLE BACKWOODSMAN.

His early history, his bear hunting, and other adventures; his services in the Creek War; his electioneering speeches and career in Congress; with his triumphal tour through the Northern States, and services in the Texan War,

As Written by Himself.

To which is added an account of his glorious death at the Alamo while fighting in defence of Texan Independence.

With illustrations. 12*mo.* Cloth, price $1 75.

Born in humble life, but gifted with a strong will, an indomitable courage, and unremitting perseverance, Col. David Crockett was one of the most remarkable men of the times in which he lived. His odd maxims, original remarks, and ready wit caused him to be quoted and admired in both hemispheres; and his life is full of interest as well as of instruction.

LIFE OF KIT CARSON,

The Great Western Hunter and Guide.

COMPRISING
Wild and romantic exploits as a hunter and trapper in the Rocky Mountains; thrilling adventures and hair-breadth escapes among the Indians and Mexicans; his daring and invaluable services as a guide to scouting and other parties, etc.

With an account of various Government Expeditions to the Far West.

By CHARLES BURDETT.

With illustrations. 12*mo.* Cloth, price $1 75.

The proverbial modesty of the subject of this volume has rendered access to his adventures very difficult, and, in some cases, impossible. His has, indeed, been a life of personal hazards, daring coolness, and moral and physical courage, such as has been rarely furnished to the world. His recent death in the far west will add special interest to this volume at this time.

LIFE OF CAPTAIN

JOHN SMITH,

The Founder of Virginia.

By W. GILMORE SIMMS,

Author of the "Life of Marion," "History of South Carolina," etc. etc.

WITH ILLUSTRATIONS.

12mo. Cloth, price $1 75.

Captain John Smith, the real founder of Virginia, is one of the proverbial heroes of this western hemisphere. His story is one of those real romances which mock the incidents of ordinary fiction. His adventures, which lift into heroic dignity a name so little significant in itself, serve to denote the more noble and daring events of a period distinguished by its spirit, its courage, and its passion for vigorous and stirring performance. It is as one of the master-spirits of this period of modern times that the subject of this biography challenges the attention of the American people.

LIFE OF General

FRANCIS MARION,

THE CELEBRATED PARTISAN HERO OF THE REVOLUTION.

With Sketches of other Distinguished Heroes and Patriots who served in the War.

By CECIL B. HARTLEY.

WITH ILLUSTRATIONS.

12mo. Cloth, price $1 75.

Marion's achievements were of the most heroic and romantic character, and are always read with interest and admiration. He was one of those men who are born to command, and his active and brilliant career as leader of the famous "Marion's Brigade" has scarcely a parallel in history.

LIFE OF General

ANDREW JACKSON,

The Celebrated Patriot and Statesman, and twice President of the United States.

By ALEXANDER WALKER.

12mo. Cloth, price $1 75.

General Jackson's character was decidedly pronounced. He possessed a firm will, was clear in judgment, rapid in his decisions, and by his own unaided exertions raised himself from comparative obscurity to the highest gift within the power of the American people. What he did he did with all his might, and his life is full of interest and instruction.

LIFE AND TIMES OF

GENERAL

SAM HOUSTON.

The Hunter Patriot and Statesman, and twice President of the Republic of Texas.

WITH MAPS, PORTRAIT, AND ILLUSTRATIONS.

12mo. Cloth, price $1 75.

The wild history of Houston reminds us of the story of Romulus, who was nurtured by the beasts of the forest, till he planted the foundations of a mighty empire. With little or no education, his early years passed mainly with the red men of the forest, he yet led the armies of Texas to victory against her invaders, secured her independence, and was twice rewarded by the highest office in the gift of the Texan people.

LIVES OF THE THREE

MRS. JUDSONS,

THE CELEBRATED

FEMALE MISSIONARIES.

A New and Carefully Revised Edition.

By CECIL B. HARTLEY.

WITH STEEL PORTRAITS.

12mo. Cloth, price $1 75.

Care has been taken in the present volume to place the domestic life of the Mrs. Judsons carefully before the reader in connection with their missionary life. They each and all stood as high for conjugal and maternal loveliness and devotedness as they did in their more public character of ministering to the sinking souls of heathens. America may well be proud of this trio of missionary heroines.

LIFE OF

Elisha Kent Kane,

AND OF OTHER

Distinguished American Explorers,

With their Researches and Adventures in remote and interesting portions of the globe.

JOHN CHARLES FREMONT,
JOHN LEDYARD,
CHARLES WILKES, and MATTHEW C. PERRY.

By SAMUEL M. SCHMUCKER, LL.D.

THE LIFE AND ADVENTURES
MISS MAJOR PAULINE

CUSHMAN,

THE CELEBRATED
UNION SPY AND SCOUT;

Including her entry into the Secret Service of the Army of the Cumberland, capture, and sentence to death by General Bragg, and rescue by the Union Army under General Rosecrans.

By F. L. SARMIENTO, Esq.,
Of the Philadelphia Bar.

With Portrait on steel and Illustrations on wood.

12mo. Cloth. Price, $1.75.

"To a finely moulded and faultless form, a dark complexion, large, lustrous, and flashing eyes, and hair as black as the raven's plume, Pauline Cushman united a quick and ready wit, a daring and vivacious spirit, and an unconquerable devotion to the old flag."—Herald.

HEROIC WOMEN
OF HISTORY.

By HENRY C. WATSON,
Author of "Camp-Fires of the Revolution," "Six Nights in a Blockhouse," etc., etc.

WITH MANY ILLUSTRATIONS.

12mo. Cloth. Price, $1.75.

This handsome volume includes nearly all of the most remarkable examples of female courage, disinterestedness, and self-sacrifice of ancient and modern times, with many that are not less remarkable, but are less generally known. The reading of this work will be ennobling to our wives, mothers, sisters, and daughters.

THE LIFE AND PUBLIC SERVICES OF

JEFFERSON DAVIS AND GENERAL
STONEWALL JACKSON:

In One Volume, with Illustrations.

12mo. Cloth. Price, $1.75.

However men may differ as to the justice or expediency of the cause in which each of these men were so prominently engaged, there can be no difference of opinion as to the talents or capabilities of each. They both served the country well before the rebellion, and both threw themselves into the cause of the South, when hostilities actually commenced, with unbounded zeal and untiring energy.

CORSICA AND THE EARLY LIFE OF NAPOLEON:

COMPRISING A SKETCH OF THE ISLAND OF CORSICA, HISTORICAL, PICTURESQUE, AND SOCIAL.

Translated from the German by EDWARD JOY MORRIS, Esq.

WITH PORTRAIT ON STEEL.

12mo. Cloth. Price, $1.75.

Giving an Account of the Early Life of Napoleon and the Bonaparte and other Principal Families living there. The striking similitude of the character of Napoleon with that of other martial chiefs of Corsica, and the ineradicable influence which the national traits exercised on his life and actions, are clearly illustrated in these pages.

PUBLIC AND PRIVATE HISTORY
OF
LOUIS NAPOLEON,
EMPEROR OF THE FRENCH.

WITH

Biographical Notices of his most distinguished Ministers, Generals, Relatives, and Favorites, and a Narrative of the Events of the War in Italy.

By SAM'L M. SCHMUCKER, LL.D.,
Author of "Court and Reign of Catharine II.," etc., etc.

WITH PORTRAITS ON STEEL, BY SARTAIN.

12mo. Cloth. Price, 1.75.

Every age produces its master-spirits, and no one can deny that Louis Napoleon occupies that position in reference to the Nineteenth Century. The author in the volume before us, unconscious of prejudice in either direction, has endeavored to give an impartial view of the public and private career of this extraordinary man.

There is a large amount of female talent in the United States lying dormant for the want of cultivation, and there has been a large amount cultivated that is not brought into exercise for the want of definite plans for making it available. It shrinks from forcing itself into notice, like the sensitive plant, and may live and die unseen and unknown. The object of this work is to throw open productive fields of labor everywhere and let women find the kind of employment best adapted to their tastes.

ELLIS' THREE VISITS

MADAGASCAR.

Three visits to Madagascar, including a journey to the Capitol, with notices of the natural history of the country, and of the present civilization of the people.

By the Rev. WILLIAM ELLIS, F. H. S.

With a Map of Madagascar, and numerous Illustrations from Photographs taken on the spot.

12mo. Cloth, price $1 75.

The chief part of these pages was written in Madagascar, where the author went on a visit of friendship to the queen and people. He describes the novel, and often singularly beautiful, aspects of the country through which he passed, and his intercourse with the people, whose hospitality and attention were unbounded. His interviews with the young prince, the queen's son, and the heir to the throne, are especially interesting, and the book cannot fail to largely increase the interest already felt in Madagascar and its people.

Armed with an especial passport from Nicholas first, Emperor of all the Russias, the author travelled over a wide field (39,500 miles), embracing sections never before seen by any European eye. He suffered much both from hunger and thirst, and was placed in many critical situations with the tribes of Central Asia, particularly when among the convicts escaped from the Chinese penal settlements—desperate characters, who hold the lives of men cheap.

HUNTING ADVENTURES

IN THE

NORTHERN WILDS;

Or, a Tramp in the Chateaugay Woods over Hills, Lakes, and Forest Streams.

BY S. H. HAMMOND.

Author of "Wild Northern Scenes."

With Illustrations.

12mo. Cloth, price $1 75.

The location of these adventures was up in the northern part of New York, where, at the time these pages were written, millions of acres were to be found in a perfect wilderness, and inclosing lakes, rivers, and mountain streams of the wildest and most romantic character. The streams were filled with fish, and the forests with game, and the author spent several weeks among them on a "tramp," partly for health, and partly for pleasure. The work will be read with much interest.

WILD

NORTHERN SCENES;

Or, Sporting Adventures with the Rifle and the Rod.

BY S. H. HAMMOND.

Author of "Hunting Adventures in the Northern Wilds."

With Illustrations.

12mo. Cloth, price $1 75.

There is a broad sweep of country lying between the St. Lawrence and Lake Champlain, which civilization, with its improvements and its rush of progress has not yet invaded. It is covered with dense forests, and inhabited by the same wild things—save the red man alone—that were there three thousand years ago. It abounds in the most beautiful lakes that the sun ever shone upon. Here may be heard the howl of the wolf, the scream of the panther, and the hoarse bellow of the moose, and here the author slew his deer every day, and might have slain half a dozen, had he been so disposed. His book is particularly racy and readable.

PERILS AND PLEASURES

OF A

HUNTER'S LIFE;

OR, THE ROMANCE OF HUNTING.

By PEREGRINE HERNE.

With Illustrations.

12mo. Cloth, price $1 75.

The book is full of thrilling incidents and hair-breadth escapes of those men who on the borders of civilization make the chase their sole occupation and delight. The adventures of such men are fascinating in the extreme, and constitute the romance of hunting.

HUNTING SPORTS

IN THE WEST.

COMPRISING

The Adventures of the most celebrated Hunters and Trappers.

By CECIL B. HARTLEY.

With Numerous Illustrations.

12mo. Cloth, price $1 75.

The reader, it is believed, will find in this volume a sufficient amount of novelty and variety to repay him for the time spent in perusing its pages, and he will probably, on closing it, come to the same conclusion which the compiler arrived at long since, namely, that hunting adventures with bears, panthers, wild cats, and other animals of similar description are, on the whole, enjoyed much better as one reads them in a book by a quiet fireside than as one who goes through them in the forest or field. Tastes, however, differ on this point.

FANNY HUNTER'S

WESTERN ADVENTURES.

WHAT FANNY HUNTER SAW AND HEARD IN KANSAS AND MISSOURI.

With Illustrations.

"In this work the authoress vividly portrays the scenes enacted in Kansas and Missouri during her sojourn of three years on the Western Border. There is much to amuse and please, as, of course, there must be, when we take a peep into the social and domestic scenes of frontier life. The book contains many curious pictures of life and character, and will address itself to a large class of readers."—Exeter News Letter.

By JOSIAH BARNES

12mo. Cloth, price $1 75.

"As I walked, I felt a death-like chill creeping along my nerves. I looked at my hands, and they were blue and stiff like a corpse's. The lamp, and then the windows multiplied; the walls danced and whirled; the floor rose beneath me; a dark rush, like diving into deep still waters, and I was lost to consciousness of external things. I came back to this world amidst the smell of drugs and the close heavy air of a sick room. Had I disclosed the awful secret?"—See page 51.

NICARAGUA;

PAST, PRESENT, AND FUTURE.

EMBRACING ITS EARLY HISTORY, AND THE MANNERS AND CUSTOMS OF ITS INHABITANTS AT THE PRESENT DAY, WITH AN ACCOUNT OF ITS MINES, ITS MINERALS, AND OTHER PRODUCTIONS, AND SHOWING THE MANIFEST DESTINY OF THE COUNTRY.

By PETER F. STOUT, Esq.

Late United States Vice-Consul.

WITH A MAP OF THE COUNTRY.

12mo. Cloth, price $1 75.

"There is much of interest and importance connected with the history of every province of the Spanish Americas; yet no one of them has attracted the attention of our people so much as Nicaragua. The climate is mild and genial, much like the month of May in the Middle States. The soil is exceedingly fertile, and produces two crops every year. The mineral wealth is vast, there being gold, silver, copper, tin, iron, and lead found in abundance. The author of this work says that a few weeks' labor to a party possessing a knowledge of mining, and the proper machinery, would be ample for amassing a fortune. The work is well written, and replete with instruction."—Transcript.

The romantic incidents connected with her experience, many may think bordering on the marvellous, but it only proves what has so often been proved before, that truth is stranger than fiction.

"This is one of those volumes of history which will be worth their weight in gold to the historians of the future. The writer tells in a plain, but clear and sometimes picturesque way, what passed immediately beneath his own eyes, or within his own ken. His scroll is written seriously, yet at the same time he is a keen lover of the ludicrous and of natural scenery. These traits make his book decidedly genial. The home patriot can here gain with small cost, little time, and no danger, a very exact idea of the entire life of the patriot of the tented field and the deadly strife."—Soldier's Messenger

AN EXCITING

Story of Army and High Life in New York in 1776.

By CHARLES BURDETT.

WITH ILLUSTRATIONS.

12mo. Cloth, price $1 75.

Miss Margaret Moncrieffe, the heroine of this book, though she had but just passed her fifteenth summer, was in all that belongs to a woman of feeling, heart, or passion, fully developed. History has recorded that a most romantic attachment sprang up between her and the handsome, gallant, and accomplished Major Aaron Burr. The pages which follow are derived from these two incidents, the mutual attachment of the fair Spy and the gallant Burr, with the infamous plot of Tryon and Matthews to betray the city of New York into the hands of the enemy.

By HENRY C. WATSON,

Author of "Camp-Fires of the Revolution."

WITH 100 ENGRAVINGS.

12mo. Cloth, price $1 75.

The actors in the thrilling drama of border warfare have generally passed from the stage. The vast forests where they roamed in the wild excitement of the chase, or struggle for life and death, have flown before the axe of civilization like shadows before sunshine. Peaceful homes now rear their heads where all was constant dread, strife, and massacre. But while we sip the cup of peace the deeds of those whose iron-hearted perseverance claimed and took the land from savage foes should not be unremembered.

FAMILY PRAYERS.

ADAPTED TO EVERY DAY IN THE WEEK,
AND INCLUDING BOTH MORNING AND EVENING SERVICE.

By the late Rev. WM. WILBERFORCE.

"One principal part of religion consists in the setting up the worship of God in our families by daily prayers to God every morning and evening, and by reading some portion of the Holy Scriptures at those times, especially out of the Psalms of David, and the New Testament. Where it is neglected, I do not see how any family can in reason be esteemed a family of Christians, or, indeed, to have any religion at all."—Archbishop Tillotson.

One great charm which pervades these pages is, that they range through every department of human experience, and show that the Spirit has its appropriate teachings for every condition. While they show the fertility of mind of this "Prince of Preachers," the purity of his taste, and the originality and beauty of his conceptions, they also breathe in an eminent degree the spirit of devotion. By HENRY M. FLINT,

AUTHOR OF THE "LIFE OF STEPHEN A. DOUGLAS," "MEXICO UNDER MAXIMILIAN," ETC. ETC.

12mo. Cloth, price $1 75.

"A very comprehensive and useful work on the subject of which it treats. The writer notices the surprising effects produced in developing the resources of the country by railroads. Thirty-eight years ago the first roads on which locomotives and steam power were used were established, while at the present time there are in the United States 30,000 miles in operation, which have cost over $1,500,000,000. But this is only the beginning of the great things that will be accomplished in the future on this continent. By saving time, and bringing remote lands into cultivation, it has increased capital with all the means of subsistence, and multiplied employment whenever it has come into use. It has made the rich man its client, and the poor man its debtor.'"—Railway Review.

LIGHT ON SHADOWED PATHS.

By T. S. ARTHUR.

12mo. Cloth, price $1 50.

The stories of Hermann and Florence, of Mrs. Elford, and others, equally interesting, in this work, are replete with practical wisdom, and a beautiful moral looms up in each chapter from which all will derive profit.

OUT IN THE WORLD.

By T. S. ARTHUR.

12mo. Cloth, price $1 50.

There are so many persons continually representing Mrs. Woodbine around us, and so few like the estimable Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence, that we urge the reading of "Out in the World" upon all young people. The work is admirably conceived, unusually entertaining, and truly touching.

OUR NEIGHBORS IN THE CORNER HOUSE.

By T. S. ARTHUR.

12mo. Cloth, price $1 50.

A very mysterious family move into the corner house. Many exciting and strange incidents occur, crime is suspicioned, and finally extraordinary revelations are made. The work is exceedingly fascinating, and adds its evidence to the fact that sin will find people out, and that justice will triumph over injury.

NOTHING BUT MONEY.

By T. S. ARTHUR.

12mo. Cloth, price $1 50.

The difference between avaricious and ambitious men and those who prefer social happiness and domestic peace is forcibly shown in this book. Young men and women, as well as the more youthful, in whose minds the thought of gold outlustres every other, should procure it, and treasure up the history it furnishes—a history true to the life.

WHAT CAME AFTERWARDS.

By T. S. ARTHUR.

12mo. Cloth, price $1 50.

After the curtain falls on the scenes graphically described in "Nothing but Money," we are presented with a sequel, equally complete in itself, which tells "what came afterwards." It takes up some of the prominent characters in the former work and disposes of them in the most satisfactory manner. Young people cannot fail to find delight and benefit in the perusal of "What Came Afterwards."

Sweet records, promises as sweet;

For human nature's daily food;
A PERFECT WOMAN, NOBLY PLANNED,
To warn, to comfort, and command;
And yet a spirit still and bright,
With something of an angel light.

"It is the very book which, if I had a thousand daughters, I would put into their hands with the Bible and the Book of Common Prayer, as their best companions, and invaluable as supplying at once the radiant chart of their career, and the inspiring motives to pursue it with untiring zeal and with unsparing self-devotion. It is indeed a wonderful book."—Right Rev. George W. Doane, D. D., Bishop of New Jersey.

THE APPROVED DOUAY BIBLE.

WITH ANNOTATIONS BY THE REV. DR. CHALLONER.

THE FOLLOWING EDITIONS OF THE CATHOLIC BIBLE, having been duly examined, are approved of by the highest authorities in the Church in this country—the Archbishops and Bishops—and are pronounced "genuine and reliable, and may be used without fear or scruple." They have been carefully revised and corrected according to the CLEMENTINE EDITION of the Scriptures, and faithfully conform to the DECREE of the COUNCIL OF TRENT concerning the canonical Scriptures. The university approbations, the admonitions, and the prayers before reading, together with other useful matter—instructive and devotional—are embraced in them. We offer them as the most desirable Bibles, in Style, Finish, Durability and Price, ever placed within the reach of the Catholic community, and COMMEND THEM as combining, throughout their contents, all the requisite care and precision, thereby meriting the approval of the bishops and clergy, and entitling them to the fullest confidence of the laity.

All the Octavo and Quarto styles given in these pages are from the versions of Douay and Rheims, translated from the Latin Vulgate, and diligently compared with the Hebrew, Greek and other editions in various languages; with annotations by the REV. DR. CHALLONER, together with References, an Historical and Chronological Index, and a table of the Epistles and Gospels for all the Sundays and Holy Days throughout the year, and of the most notable feasts in the Roman Calendar.

DOCTOR LIVINGSTONE was one of the most indefatigable and intrepid of modern explorers. Cutting loose from the ties that bound him to his native country, with grand and noble purpose, he bid defiance to fatigue and danger and sought to solve the Mystery of the Wonderful River Nile, to open up to other nations the Treasures of a Vast Unexplored Region, and carry the Gospel to benighted millions of the Human Race. His was the life of a Hero, struggling in the face of dangers on every hand, but, with persistent courage, sustained by the presence of the God whom he served, he surmounted the most formidable obstacles and accomplished stupendous results. The whole civilized world has felt the deepest interest in the accounts of his sad and lonely death, and multitudes will want to read his Life-History as detailed in the pages of this work.

There is a fascination about this book that the reader will scarcely find in any other work of its class. The History of the various Northern Expeditions is given, from those under the Scandinavians, —the Sea Kings of Old, who visited Greenland and Newfoundland six centuries before Columbus discovered America,—to the latest Expeditions fitted out by the United States and Great Britain. The world's annals do not record greater heroism, more sublime faith, more terrible suffering, nor present to our view scenes of disaster, desolation, ruin and death more distressing, than has been developed and experienced by Arctic Explorers, and most graphically narrated in this work.

EVERY page of this Beautiful Work is calculated to refine the intellect, purify the affections, and impress the heart of the Young Reader by leading the mind to contemplate those scenes over which "the morning stars sang together and the Sons of God shouted for joy," where Patriarchs and Prophets dwelt, and which have been rendered for ever sublime by the visible presence of our Lord and Saviour JESUS CHRIST. The devout spirit of Christian faith and love pervades the entire work, imparting healthful vigor to all its details, while the Reverend Author's anxious desire to guide the youth into the paths of everlasting life is evident throughout its pages. The number and excellence of the Engravings, and the forty-eight choice Pictures in Oil Colors, adds largely to its usefulness and value, attracting the eye, correcting erroneous impressions, awakening new thoughts, and affording clearer and grander conceptions of its Scenes and Incidents. WITHOUT Health no man can enjoy Life, or properly discharge the duties devolving on him; and he who would have a healthy old age must exercise the care and prudence of the old while yet young. The Author of this Work does not indulge in the use of technical words and phrases calculated only to mystify the ordinary reader, but his plan, evident thoughout the book, has been with all honesty, simplicity and common sense to guard the reader against what is prejudicial to health, and to tell him what to do when disease overtakes him. He believes that the conditions of perfect health are seldom or never attained, though attainable. The book also includes many valuable receipts for family use, collected and attested by an experience of over thirty years. In one handsome Octavo Volume

It has been written with great care and impartiality, and no labor or expense has been spared in obtaining the most correct information on the almost innumerable facts here presented. The publications of each Denomination have been its authorities, and where these have failed to be fully satisfactory, the information sought for has been gained by direct correspondence with some of its members. WITH NEARLY 3000 ILLUSTRATIVE ENGRAVINGS.

POTTER'S COMPLETE BIBLE ENCYCLOPEDIA is a work peculiarly practical and adapted to popular use. Its information is condensed from thousands of publications, and covers the whole field of Religious Literature. In the Articles great care has been exercised to give the known facts in plain and terse language, excluding mere theories and conjectures. The results of Investigation and Research are given, and not the opinions of individuals or their arguments.

The Editor, Rev. Dr. Blackwood, a profound Biblical scholar and critic, has brought to bear the wisdom derived from many years of study in its compilation, and the result is a grand Treasury of Religious Knowledge Complete and Reliable.

The Work is remarkably full and complete in its Pictorial Illustrations. Indeed, one unacquainted with it can have no conception of their Variety, Fullness and Beauty. In the profusion that meets the eye, one is not only surprised but delighted to see, not diminutive pictures, as in a Dictionary, but mostly Large and Superb Specimens, taking rank among the finest ever produced.

The Type is new Brevier, with a clear and beautiful face, cast expressly for the work, and the printing is done in the very best style, on a toned paper of superior quality and highly calendered surface.

The Library and Family Editions embrace AN APPENDIX, giving a History of the Early Christian Church, Ancient Jewish History, Ancient Egyptian History, a History of Mohammedanism, the Sources of the Text of the Old and New Testament Scriptures, and much Tabular and other Matter, all of special interest and great value.

The People's Edition is complete in itself, containing all the Encyclopedic matter, but without the Appendix.

Clement M. Butler, D. D., Grandly Illustrated; THE IMPROVED PICTORIAL DICTIONARY OF THE BIBLE, by Rev. Alfred Nevin, D. D., LL. D., and THE ILLUSTRATED CITIES OF THE BIBLE, by Rev. John H. Morris.

WITH 24 FINE STEEL PLATES AND ILLUSTRATIVE MAPS.

In offering to the public this new and elegant edition of BROWN'S SELF-INTERPRETING BIBLE, we need say little of the work itself, as it has achieved a popularity on both continents more wide-spread and enduring than has been attained by any other similar publication; though the original was issued nearly a hundred years since, its readers are more numerous now than ever, nor can this popularity abate, as The Commentary is peculiarly adapted to the wants of every family, and of each general reader who desires to understand the Divine truths of the Inspired Word.

This edition has been prepared with great care, under the Editorial charge of Rev. Dr. Porter, son-in-law of the Rev. Dr. Cooke, the former Editor. Probably no man so well fitted for the work could have been selected. Naturally of a critical mind, deeply learned in the languages, for many years a resident in Bible Lands, a close student of Biblical subjects, and, at the present time, Professor of Biblical Criticism in the Assembly's College, in Belfast, he has carefully revised the Notes, and made such corrections and additions as recent advances in Biblical Literature render necessary or desirable.

To increase its value to American readers, the profound Biblical scholar and critic, Rev. Dr. Blackwood, has carefully revised the work, making such emendations and additions as were called for, and has added a highly interesting sketch of the lives of Rev. John Brown and of the Rev. Drs. Cooke and Porter.

The Electrotype Plates for this superb Bible are new and unusually excellent, and are from a large and open Pica Type, cast expressly for this work. It is printed in the best manner, on a superior quality of Paper. All the styles contain the Marriage Certificate, Family Record, etc., etc.

THE SELF-EXPLAINING FAMILY BIBLE has been prepared at a great outlay of time, care and money, and supplies a long-needed help to the proper understanding of the Word of God. The gradual though unceasing mutations in the Geography and Typography of the World, the Rise and Fall of Nations, the substitution of New for Old Customs and Ceremonies, and above all the changes in Idioms and Words, and even in Orthography, make many passages in the Inspired Writings seem obscure and dark. Nevin's Dictionary, with the treatise on the evidences of the Genuineness, Authenticity, Preservation and Value of the Word of God, and the Matter contained in the grandly Illustrated Features named above, and the Tabular and other Historical and Explanatory matter accompanying this book, affords just such assistance as the sincere searcher after truth most requires, and greatly simplifies and facilitates Biblical study.

NEVIN'S NEW AND IMPROVED BIBLE DICTIONARY has been compiled and edited with great care, and affords an invaluable help to the proper understanding of the Scriptures. It contains, in their Alphabetical Order, with full Scripture references, nearly two thousand terse articles, on the various Names, Titles, Terms, etc., that occur in the Inspired Writings. The information has been gleaned from the most reliable works of ancient and modern times, the requisite brevity being secured by judicious and happy condensation, without omitting any important fact or item.

This Edition of the Word of God is printed in a clear, large Type, on a superior white Paper, and is bound in the most durable and attractive manner. All of the styles contain the Marriage Certificate, Family Record, Family Album, Sixteen full-page Steel Plates and Maps, with Dictionary, Tables and other matter mentioned above. It is offered to the public in the full confidence that its intrinsic merits will win for it the highest position in popular esteem.

THE PICTORIAL FAMILY BIBLE is published under the conviction that no book more fully admits of, or calls for, thorough illustration than the Sacred Volume. These pictures show a careful study of all the sources of our knowledge of the Ancient World, and help to explain and give life and force to the reader's conception of the scenes and events of which he reads. It is a storehouse of information that can only reach the mind through the eye. They carry one back to the most important era of the world, and are of themselves a comprehensive review of the Scriptures, representing the most interesting Views, Characters, Symbols, Historical Events, Landscape Scenes, Antiquities, Costumes, Beasts, Birds, Insects, Plants, Minerals, Coins, Medals, Inscriptions and Incidents referred to throughout the Sacred Text. They attract the eye, correct erroneous impressions, awaken new thoughts, and furnish clearer views of Divine Truth. Altogether, this Bible cannot be overestimated as a help to Parents, Ministers, Sunday-school Teachers, and all others to whom immortal souls are entrusted. But not only is it thus useful for instructors: it is likewise peculiarly valuable for the individual student and reader, entertaining for the Young, Middle-aged and Old, elegant for the Parlor, and desirable for all who can appreciate beauty combined with utility. It will commend itself as a Bible, a great Family Book and an Encyclopædia combined. Fifty Thousand Marginal Notes and References are introduced in the text. They have been prepared with great care by eminent Biblical scholars, and are valuable aids to the comprehensive study of the Scriptures. A neat and handsome Border around each page materially enhances its beauty.

The Book is printed on excellent Paper, in a clear and open Type, and is bound in the most durable and attractive manner in one large and handsome Quarto Volume of over 1600 pages. All the styles contain Full-page Steel Plates, the Marriage Certificate, Family Record, Maps, Tables and other matter mentioned above. POTTER'S PICTORIAL

GERMAN FAMILY BIBLE:

(MARTIN LUTHER'S LATEST REVISION)

CONTAINING

THE OLD AND NEW TESTAMENTS,

AND

The Apocrypha; with Copious References and Critical and Explanatory Notes,

By OTTO DELITSCH,

Religious Instructor at the City High School in Leipsic.

TO WHICH ARE ADDED

A HISTORY OF THE INSPIRED BOOKS OF THE OLD AND NEW TESTAMENTS AND OF THE APOCRYPHAL BOOKS. NUMEROUS CHRONOLOGICAL TABLES, A HARMONY OF THE FOUR GOSPELS, A CHRONOLOGICAL INDEX, AN INTRODUCTION BY THE AMERICAN EDITOR, ETC., ETC.

AMERICAN EDITION, EDITED

By Rev. CHARLES P. KRAUTH, D.D.,

Norton Professor of Theology in the Lutheran Theological Seminary, Philadelphia; Professor of Moral and Intellectual Philosophy in the University of Pennsylvania, etc.; Author of "The Conservative Reformation and its Theology," Translator of Tholuck's "Commentary on St. John," etc.

WITH NEARLY ONE THOUSAND FINE ENGRAVINGS.

THIS BIBLE contains MARTIN LUTHER'S TRANSLATION of the whole Word of God—a translation to whose fidelity to the Sacred Text and to whose matchless beauty more than three centuries have given accumulating testimony. The Text of this Edition is Luther's own, from his latest revision. Many so-called editions of Luther's Bible are unreliable because they take liberties of a very unwarrantable kind with the text. The name "Luther's Bible" should not be made to cover what he never approved. The References to Parallel Passages are given with great fullness. The Commentary has been prepared with great care, on the basis of the very best aids; the observations, for the most part, aim to present explanations illustrative of the History, Antiquities, Manners, Customs, National Peculiarities and Geography of the Bible. The Chronological Tables are based upon careful computations, in which the most minute data, furnished by the Bible itself, are carefully weighed, and the important helps of Astronomy and uninspired History have been made to contribute to the perfect accuracy of these Tables. A marked feature of this Bible, which will at once arrest the eye, is its rich store of Pictorial Illustrations. The Pictures show a careful study of all the sources of our knowledge of the Ancient World; they help to explain, and give life and force to the reader's conception of, the Scenes and Events of which he reads. These Pictures are remarkably true to life, and, while they are full of spirit and freshness, they are reverential and dignified in their tone. The value of these Illustrations is greatly increased by an admirable Index at the end, in which the Historical Pictures are chronologically arranged, and the others are classified by their subjects. A careful Analysis is given of the contents and train of thought in the larger Books; the subjects of the Chapters are presented at their respective Heads; the Epistles and Gospels of the Church Year are indicated in the Text, and the more important Passages and Proof-texts are printed in such a way as readily to catch the eye.

This superb BIBLE is bound in one large Quarto Volume, in the most attractive and durable manner. All the Styles contain a handsome Marriage Certificate, a Family Record, etc., etc.

THE OLD AND NEW TESTAMENTS,

TRANSLATED FROM THE LATIN VULGATE,

By Dr. JOSEPH FRANZ VON ALLIOLI.

THE COMPLETE TEXT APPROVED BY THE APOSTOLIC CHAIR.

WITH

Full Annotations from the Large Biblical Commentary of the Translator, rearranged under his personal supervision.

TO WHICH IS PREFIXED

A HISTORY OF THE BOOKS OF THE OLD AND NEW TESTAMENTS.

WITH SEVERAL HUNDRED FINE ENGRAVINGS.

This Popular Pictorial Edition is Approved by the Apostolic Nuncio and Vicar-General of Augsburg, and is the only Authorized German Catholic Version.

THE Bible which is here offered to that large and ever-growing part of our Nation whose tongue is German has among its claims to their attention the following:

It contains the complete and exact text of DR. JOSEPH FRANZ VON ALLIOLI—a translation whose matchless beauty and fidelity to the Sacred Text have long been universally recognized. It stands alone in its claims to the confidence of the faithful, being the only authorized German Version duly approved by the Apostolic Chair and by the Apostolic Nuncio and Vicar-General of Augsburg. Accompanying the text are the Annotations from Dr. Allioli's large Biblical Commentary, rearranged under his personal supervision especially for this work. These Annotations are full, and materially assist the reader in understanding the revealed mysteries of Divine Truth. The History of the Books of the Old and New Testaments, with other Devotional and Instructive matter included in this volume, adds largely to its excellence and value.

Under the conviction that the Sacred Book should be clothed in the most elegant garb possible, its attractiveness and beauty have been greatly enhanced by its rich store of Pictorial Illustrations, which are of themselves a comprehensive review of the Scriptures. They please the eye, correct erroneous impressions, awaken new thoughts and give life and force to the reader's conception of the scenes and events of which he reads. They are executed in the highest style of German Art, and, while full of spirit and freshness, are reverential and dignified in their tone.

The Book is printed on a superior quality of Paper, from a large and remarkably clear Type, and is bound, in our usual durable and superb manner, in one handsome Quarto Volume of nearly Sixteen Hundred Pages. All of the styles contain a handsome Family Record, elegantly Illuminated and Emblematic Title Pages, with other matter mentioned above. WITH NUMEROUS ILLUSTRATIVE ENGRAVINGS.

THIS WORK FILLS A PLACE IN AMERICAN LITERATURE UNOCCUPIED BY ANY OTHER PUBLICATION.

It comprises many Rare and Valuable Sketches of the Early History of America, as rare almost as manuscript. These sketches furnish Incidents and Events which occurred in the Colonial, Revolutionary, and Post-Revolutionary Times of our country, and not found in general History. Many of these facts have been supplied through Manuscript Records handed down as Heirlooms in the old families of our land, and secured for publication for the first time in the Record. Its NOTES and QUERIES concerning American History is replete with interesting and valuable information, and its BIOGRAPHIES set forth facts in the lives of eminent Americans not generally known to American Readers. It gives Discussions of Important Historical Questions, Synopses of Essays or Addresses read before Historical and kindred Societies, and Notices of special Historical Literature, and of Rare and Valuable Works on American History, etc., etc. It contains many curious and notable Fac-simile Autograph Letters, Public Documents and Signatures, written and signed by persons illustrious in the earlier days of our Country. It describes and illustrates many old Historic Buildings, and offers much other matter most desirable to the American Reader.

Through the courtesy of the Secretary of War, VALUABLE DOCUMENTS OF THE REVOLUTIONARY PERIOD have been secured and published for the first time in the Record. Among these are the Manuscript Orderly Books of General Washington, from the Spring of 1781, when he was preparing for the junction of the American and French Armies for the memorable campaign which resulted in the capture of Lord Cornwallis; all of which have been carefully annotated by Dr. Lossing.

THE EDITOR is one of the most accurate and accomplished American Historians, a fluent, graceful writer, and as gifted with his pencil as his pen, and some of the Best Minds of the Country have Contributed their Wealth to its pages.

The Work is printed in a clear open Type, on an excellent quality of super-calendered, toned Paper. The Engravings are by the best artists, and the Binding is done in the most substantial manner.

VALUABLE CONTRIBUTIONS BY OTHER EMINENT DIVINES,

In offering to the public THIS GREAT WORK, it affords the Publishers far more than usual pleasure to invite attention to its intrinsic merits and peculiar excellences. It covers a field of usefulness never before so fully reached by any similar publication, while in the immense variety of Subjects discussed, in the abundance and the beauty of its Illustrations, in its clear, open and handsome Type, it appeals at once to the mind and the eye of every person of intelligence and taste. It supplements and illustrates the Word of God itself, and may well be termed an exhaustive Religious Library. This information has been gathered at the cost of immense labor and painstaking research from thousands of publications, the writings of Eminent Divines and Distinguished Scholars of all lands and ages of the world. Its Topographical and Geographical Literature includes the results of the researches of the latest travelers; its Criticisms, the learning of the most profound thinkers and writers of all lands and periods; while its faithfulness of statement and freedom from bias in matters of Historical, Biographical and Doctrinal detail, together with the excellence, appropriateness and liberal number of its Pictorial Illustrations, justify the claim that it occupies a department peculiar to itself among the Great Works of the Nineteenth Century, and that, next to God's Word alone, it will prove the most indispensable Family Book extant.

The material used, and the mechanical execution throughout, will be in every way worthy of its high character. The Type is new Brevier leaded, of a clear and beautiful face, cast expressly for the work; and the leading or subject-word of each article is put in a handsome black title letter. BROWN'S SELF-INTERPRETING FAMILY BIBLE.

POTTER'S NEW AND IMPROVED AMERICAN EDITION; Containing the Old and New Testaments; with an Introduction, Marginal References and Readings, and Critical Notes and Reflections, by Rev. John Brown, of Haddington, and Several Thousand Additional Notes, by Rev. Henry Cooke, D.D., LL.D., President of Assembly's College, Belfast. New Edition, with Important Additions, by Rev. J. L. William Blackwood, D.D., LL.D., author of "Blackwood's Comprehensive Aids to the Study of the Holy Bible," Editor of "Potter's Complete Bible Encyclopedia," etc.

In offering to the public this new elegant edition of BROWN'S SELF-INTERPRETING BIBLE, we need say little of the work itself, as it has achieved a popularity on both continents more widespread and enduring than has been attained by any other similar publication. This Edition has been prepared with great care, under the Editorial charge of Rev. Dr. Porter, son-in-law of the Rev. Dr. Cooke, the former Editor. The profound Biblical scholar and critic, Rev. Dr. Blackwood, has carefully revised the work, making such emendations and additions as were called for, and has prefixed a highly interesting Sketch of the Lives of Rev. John Brown and of the Rev. Drs. Cooke and Porter. The admirable Introduction contains the proofs of the Genuineness, the Authenticity and the Divine Authority of the Scriptures; Plain Rules for their profitable perusal; a general view of the Hebrew Laws and Types; a very complete summary of the History of Nations alluded to in the Bible; a full Chronological Index; and "Barr's Concise Dictionary of the Bible" in its enlarged form. The Critical and Explanatory Notes elucidate the figurative, the prophetic and the practical parts of the Word, shedding much light upon apparent contradictions and other difficulties that frequently perplex sincere believers, while the Reflections are full of a deep spirit of pious devotion.

This superb Edition of Brown's Self-Interpreting Bible is printed in the best manner, from new Plates, on a fine calendered and sized Paper, and each part is illustrated with a Fine Line Steel Plate or Map. It is the most elegant and intrinsically valuable Bible in the English language.

To which are added a History of the Inspired Books of the Old and New Testaments and of the Apocryphal Books, Numerous Chronological Tables, a Harmony of the Four Gospels, a Chronological Index, an Introduction to the American Edition, etc., etc. American Edition, edited by Rev. Charles P. Krauth, D. D., Norton Professor of Theology in the Lutheran Theological Seminary, Philadelphia, Professor of Moral and Intellectual Philosophy in the University of Pennsylvania, etc., Author of "The Conservative Reformation and its Theology," Translator of Tholuck's "Commentary on St. John," etc. The whole Illustrated with nearly One Thousand Fine Engravings.

THIS Bible contains MARTIN LUTHER'S TRANSLATION of the whole Word of God—a translation to whose fidelity to the Sacred Text, and to whose matchless beauty, more than three centuries have given accumulating testimony. The text is Luther's own, from his latest revision. The References to Parallel Passages are given with great fullness. They embrace the Passages which illustrate the words, as well as those which elucidate the subjects. The Commentary has been prepared with great care, on the basis of the very best aids; the observations, for the most part, aim to present explanations illustrative of the History, Antiquities, Manners, Customs, National Peculiarities and Geography of the Bible. Special prominence has been given to the materials furnished by the Natural Sciences. The Chronological Tables are based upon careful computations, in which the most minute data, furnished by the Bible itself, are carefully weighed, and the important helps of Astronomy and Uninspired History have been made to contribute to the perfect accuracy of these Tables. A marked feature of this Bible which will at once arrest the eye is its rich store of Pictorial Illustrations. The Pictures show a careful study of all the sources of our knowledge of the Ancient World; they help to explain, and give life and force to the reader's conception of, the Scenes and Events of which he reads. These Pictures are remarkably true to life; and while they are full of spirit and freshness, they are reverential and dignified in their tone. A careful Analysis is given of the contents and train of thought in the larger Books; the subjects of the Chapters are presented at their respective Heads; the Epistles and Gospels of the Church Year are indicated in the Text; and the more important Passages and Proof-texts are printed in such a way as readily to catch the eye.

The work is well printed on fine Paper, with the Title-pages and the Covers in Two Colors.

Complete in about 40 Parts at 50 Cents each.

YOUTH'S ILLUMINATED BIBLE HISTORY;

OR, HALF HOURS IN BIBLE-LANDS. By Rev. P. C. Headley, Author of "Women of the Bible," "Harvest-Work of the Holy Spirit," "The Empress Josephine," "The Life of General Lafayette," etc. Embellished with nearly One Hundred Choice Engravings and Forty-eight Handsome Illuminated Pictures.

DESIGNED and written expressly for the young, those of riper years will find this Historic Narrative interesting and instructive. It combines the substantial features of SACRED HISTORY, GEOGRAPHY and BIOGRAPHY with the attractiveness and interest of Romance. Facts are presented in lucid yet racy and piquant language, imparting instruction in Biblical Truths, while fascinating the reader and ensuring close and unwearied attention by the entire absence of prosiness and other tiresome characteristics of too many histories. The number and excellence of the Engravings, and the forty-eight choice Pictures in Oil Colors, add largely to the usefulness and value of the Work, attracting the eye, correcting erroneous impressions, awakening new thoughts, and affording clearer and grander conceptions of its Scenes and Incidents. These Illustrations are judiciously distributed through the Book. The Title-pages to the several Divisions and the Covers are printed in Colors, and an Illuminated Border surrounds each Page.

Complete in 24 Parts at 25 Cents each.

BASCOM (John), President of University of Wisconsin. The Philosophy of English Literature. Lectures delivered before the Lowell Institute, Boston. 12mo, cloth 1 75

"The student and reader of English Literature will find this volume a choice contribution to his library of text books and manuals. One may be thoroughly familiar with the multitude of successive authors whose productions form the vast treasury of English literature, and wholly lack an understanding of the conditions which surround them, the influences which directed them, and the relations which they hold to one another. A knowledge of forces, as well as of facts, is essential to our comprehension of any phenomenon. . . . It is this which Mr. Bascom helps us to gain."—Chicago Tribune.

"Without meaning in any way to be extravagant, we express the candid judgment that this little duodecimo of about 300 pages ought to be in the hands of every American military student, and of every American soldier. The "Student's Own Book," by Paul Reeves, which forms the first of the Handy-Book Series, is notable among other points in giving "a good deal for the money." The amount of matter in this book, which is in clear and neat, though small type, fully equals that in other books of twice the size and cost. It contains many new pieces not to be found in any of the school text-books. It aims to meet the wants of a large number outside of the school-room, while it is also well adapted for school use.

The Philadelphia Inquirer says of it: "The general rules laid down, and the suggestions thrown out, are excellent, while the pieces furnished for declamation are well chosen. The book is one deserving a wide circulation."

Another good authority says: "We have never before seen a collection so admirably adapted for its purpose. Prose and verse, humor, eloquence, description, alteration, burlesque discourse of every kind. . . . For schools, clubs, and fireside amusement, it will be found an almost inexhaustible source of entertainment. . . . The instruction . . . is sensible and practical."

The book, from its simplicity and the excellence of its instruction, is especially adapted for use in schools, while the information it contains is of value and interest to all classes of readers.

"It is this sort of knowledge that is contained in Prof. Rogers' book, which we cannot too highly recommend to the use of teachers, students, and the general public."—American Athenæum.

Addresses by D. L. Moody. Revised by Himself. 12 mo. paper 50 c, cloth bound, 75 c.

PREFACE.

In compliance with the wish of my many friends I have consented to the publication of the following Addresses.

I deeply feel how partially and insufficiently the Glorious Gospel of the blessed God is represented in them, but I lay them at the Master's feet, praying—and asking all my Christian friends to pray—that they may be the means in their printed form of winning more souls to Christ than they have been when spoken. D. L. MOODY.

Glad Tidings; a book for inquirers By ROBERT BOYD, D. D., with Preface by D. L. MOODY.

Some years since when this little work attracted my notice, I read it with interest, and felt so much profited that I re-read it several times, and then circulated hundreds of copies. The number that seemed blessed through reading the book induced me, when in England, to request its re-publication in that country. Returning I found it had ceased to be issued except as a part of a large subscription book, and therefore urged its publication in cheap form, and I trust it may now be the means of much blessing. D. L. MOODY.

12 mo. 100 pp. cloth. neat, 50c. A cheap edition in paper for circulation 25 c.

PEARL DIAMOND 32mo BIBLE.

CHAPTER XXVII.

1 Isaac sendeth Esau for venison. 6 Jacob, instructed by Rebekah, obtaineth the blessing: 34 Esau's complaint: 41 he threateneth Jacob's life. 42 Rebekah sendeth Jacob to Laban.

AND it came to pass, that when Isaac was old, and his eyes were dim, so that he could not see, he called Esau his eldest son, and said unto him, My son: and he said unto him, Behold, here am I.

2 And he said, Behold now, I am old, I know not the day of my death.

3 Now therefore take, I pray thee, thy weapons, thy quiver and thy bow, and go out to the field, and take me some venison;

4 And make me savoury meat, such as I love, and bring it to me, that I may eat; that my soul may bless thee before I die.

5 And Rebekah heard when Isaac spake to Esau his son. And Esau went to the field to hunt for venison, and to bring it.

6 ¶ And Rebekah spake unto Jacob her son, saying, Behold, I heard thy father speak unto Esau thy brother, saying,

7 Bring me venison, and make me savoury meat, that I may eat, and bless thee before the LORD before my death.

8 Now therefore, my son, obey my voice according to that which I command thee.

9 Go now to the flock, and fetch me from thence two good kids of the goats; and I will make them savoury meat for thy father, such as he loveth:

10 And thou shalt bring it to thy father, that he may eat, and that he may bless thee before his death.

11 And Jacob said to Rebekah his mother, Behold, Esau my brother is a hairy man, and I am a smooth man:

12 My father peradventure will feel me, and I shall seem to him as a deceiver; and I shall bring a curse upon me, and not a blessing.

13 And his mother said unto him, Upon me be thy curse, my son: only obey my voice, and go fetch me them.

14 And he went, and fetched, and brought them to his mother: and his mother made savoury meat, such as his father loved.

15 And Rebekah took goodly raiment of her eldest son Esau, which were with her in the house, and put them upon Jacob her younger son:

16 And she put the skins of the kids of the goats upon his hands, and upon the smooth of his neck:

17 And she gave the savoury meat and the bread, which she had prepared, into the hand of her son Jacob.

18 ¶ And he came unto his father, and said, My father: and he said, Here am I; who art thou, my son?

19 And Jacob said unto his father, I am Esau thy first-born; I have done according as thou badest me: arise, I pray thee, sit and eat of my venison, that thy soul may bless me.

20 And Isaac said unto his son, How is it that thou hast found it so quickly, my son? And he said, Because the LORD thy God brought it to me.

21 And Isaac said unto Jacob, Come near, I pray thee, that I may feel thee, my son, whether thou be my very son Esau or not.

22 And Jacob went near unto Isaac his father; and he felt him, and said, The voice is Jacob's voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau.

23 And he discerned him not, because his hands were hairy, as his brother Esau's hands: so he blessed him.

24 And he said, Art thou my very son Esau? And he said, I am.

25 And he said, Bring it near to me, and I will eat of my son's venison, that my soul may bless thee. And he brought it near to him, and he did eat: and he brought him wine, and he drank.

26 And his father Isaac said unto him, Come near now, and kiss me, my son.

27 And he came near, and kissed him: and he smelled the smell of his raiment, and blessed him, and said, See, the smell of my son is as the smell of a field which the LORD hath blessed:

28 Therefore God give thee of the dew of heaven, and the fatness of the earth, and plenty of corn and wine:

29 Let people serve thee, and nations bow down to thee: be lord over thy brethren, and let thy mother's sons bow down to thee: cursed be every one that curseth thee, and blessed be he that blesseth thee.

shall be comforted in the nether parts of the earth.

17 They also went down into hell with him unto them that be slain with the sword; and they that were his arm, that dwelt under his shadow in the midst of the heathen.

18 ¶ To whom art thou thus like in glory and in greatness among the trees of Eden? yet shalt thou be brought down with the trees of Eden unto the nether parts of the earth: thou shalt lie in the midst of the uncircumcised with them that be slain by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all his multitude, saith the Lord GOD.

CHAPTER XXXII.

Lamentation for the fearful fall of Egypt. 11 The sword of Babylon shall destroy it, etc.

AND it came to pass in the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, take up a lamentation for Pharaoh king of Egypt, and say unto him, Thou art like a young lion of the nations, and thou art as a whale in the seas: and thou camest forth with thy rivers, and troubledst the waters with thy feet, and fouledst their rivers.

3 Thus saith the Lord GOD; I will therefore spread out my net over thee with a company of many people; and they shall bring thee up in my net.

4 Then will I leave thee upon the land, I will cast thee forth upon the open field, and will cause all the fowls of the heaven to remain upon thee, and I will fill the beasts of the whole earth with thee.

5 And I will lay thy flesh upon the mountains, and fill the valleys with thy height.

6 I will also water with thy blood the land wherein thou swimmest, even to the mountains; and the rivers shall be full of thee.

7 And when I shall put thee out, I will cover the heaven, and make the stars thereof dark; I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall not give her light.

8 All the bright lights of heaven will I make dark over thee, and set darkness upon thy land, saith the Lord GOD.

9 I will also vex the hearts of many people, when I shall bring thy destruction among the nations, into the countries which thou hast not known.

10 Yea, I will make many people amazed at thee, and their kings shall be horribly afraid for thee, when I shall brandish my sword before them; and they shall tremble at every moment, every man for his own life, in the day of thy fall.

11 ¶ For thus saith the Lord GOD; The sword of the king of Babylon shall come upon thee.

12 By the swords of the mighty will I cause thy multitude to fall, the terrible of the nations, all of them; and they shall spoil the pomp of Egypt, and all the multitude thereof shall be destroyed.

13 I will destroy also all the beasts thereof from beside the great waters; neither shall the foot of man trouble them any more, nor the hoofs of beasts trouble them.

14 Then will I make their waters deep, and cause their rivers to run like oil, saith the Lord GOD.

15 When I shall make the land of Egypt desolate, and the country shall be destitute of that whereof it was full, when I shall smite all them that dwell therein, then shall they know that I am the LORD.

16 This is the lamentation wherewith they shall lament her: the daughters of the nations shall lament her: they shall lament for her, even for Egypt, and for all her multitude, saith the Lord GOD.

17 ¶ It came to pass also in the twelfth year, in the fifteenth day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, wail for the multitude of Egypt, and cast them down, even her, and the daughters of the famous nations, unto the nether parts of the earth, with them that go down into the pit.

19 Whom dost thou pass in beauty? go down, and be thou laid with the uncircumcised.

20 They shall fall in the midst of them that are slain by the sword: she is delivered to the sword: draw her and all her multitudes.

21 The strong among the mighty shall speak to him out of the midst of hell with them that help him: they are gone down, they lie uncircumcised, slain by the sword.

22 Asshur is there, and all her company: his graves are about him: all of them slain, fallen by the sword:

23 Whose graves are set in the sides of the pit, and her company is round about her grave; all of them slain, fallen by the sword, which caused terror in the land of the living.

24 There is Elam and all her multitude round about her grave; all of them slain, fallen by the sword, which are gone down uncircumcised into the nether parts of the earth, which caused their terror in the land of the living; yet have they borne their shame with them that go down to the pit.

25 They have set her a bed in the midst of the slain with all her multitude: her graves are round about him; all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword: though their terror was caused in the land of the living, yet have they borne their shame with them that go down to the pit: he is put in the midst of them that be slain.

26 There is Meshech, Tubal, and all her multitude: her graves are round about him; all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword, though they caused their terror in the land of the living.

27 And they shall not lie with the mighty that are fallen of the uncircumcised, which are gone down to hell with their weapons of war: and they have laid their swords under their heads; but their iniquities shall be upon their bones, though they were the terror of the mighty in the land of the living.

28 Yea, thou shalt be broken in the midst of the uncircumcised, and shalt lie with them that are slain with the sword.

29 There is Edom, her kings, and all her princes, which with their might are laid by them that were slain by the sword: they let the beasts get away from under it, and the fowls from his branches:

15 Nevertheless, leave the stump of his roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts in the grass of the earth:

16 Let his heart be changed from man's, and let a beast's heart be given unto him; and let seven times pass over him.

17 This matter is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones: to the intent that the living may know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will, and setteth up over it the basest of men.

18 This dream I king Nebuchadnezzar have seen. Now thou, O Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation thereof, forasmuch as all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known unto me the interpretation: but thou art able; for the spirit of the holy gods is in thee.

19 ¶ Then Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, was astonied for one hour, and his thoughts troubled him. The king spake, and said, Belteshazzar, let not the dream, or the interpretation thereof, trouble thee. Belteshazzar answered and said, My lord, the dream be to them that hate thee, and the interpretation thereof to thine enemies.

20 The tree that thou sawest, which grew, and was strong, whose height reached unto the heaven, and the sight thereof to all the earth;

21 Whose leaves were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all; under which the beasts of the field dwelt, and upon whose branches the fowls of the heaven had their habitation:

22 It is thou, O king, that art grown and become strong: for thy greatness is grown, and reacheth unto heaven, and thy dominion to the end of the earth.

23 And whereas the king saw a watcher and an holy one coming down from heaven, and saying, Hew the tree down, and destroy it; yet leave the stump of the roots thereof in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts of the field, till seven times pass over him;

24 This is the interpretation, O king, and this is the decree of the Most High, which is come upon my lord the king:

25 That they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field, and they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and they shall wet thee with the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pass over thee, till thou know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will.

26 And whereas they commanded to leave the stump of the tree roots; thy kingdom shall be sure unto thee, after that thou shalt have known that the heavens do rule.

27 Wherefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable unto thee, and break off thy sins by righteousness, and thine iniquities by showing mercy to the poor; if it may be a lengthening of thy tranquillity.

28 ¶ All this came upon the king Nebuchadnezzar.

29 At the end of twelve months he walked in the palace of the kingdom of Babylon.

30 The king spake, and said, Is not this great Babylon, that I have built for the house of the kingdom by the might of my power, and for the honour of my majesty?

31 While the word was in the king's mouth, there fell a voice from heaven, saying, O king Nebuchadnezzar, to thee it is spoken; The kingdom is departed from thee:

32 And they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field: they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and seven times shall pass over thee, until thou know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will.

33 The same hour was the thing fulfilled upon Nebuchadnezzar: and he was driven from men, and did eat grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till his hairs were grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws.

34 And at the end of the days I Nebuchadnezzar lifted up mine eyes unto heaven, and mine understanding returned unto me, and I blessed the Most High, and I praised and honoured him that liveth for ever, whose dominion is an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom is from generation to generation:

35 And all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing: and he doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth; and none can stay his hand, or say unto him, What doest thou?

36 At the same time my reason returned unto me; and for the glory of my kingdom, mine honour and brightness returned unto me; and my counsellors and my lords sought unto me; and I was established in my kingdom, and excellent majesty was added unto me.

37 Now I Nebuchadnezzar praise and extol and honour the King of heaven, all whose works are truth, and his ways judgment: and those that walk in pride he is able to abase.

CHAPTER V.

1 Belshazzar's impious feast: 5 a hand-writing troubles him: 17 Daniel reproves the king for pride, profaneness, and idolatry: 25 he reads and interprets the writing.

BELSHAZZAR the king made a great feast to a thousand of his lords, and drank wine before the thousand.

MINION 24mo BIBLE.

Behold, I will do a thing in Israel, at which both the ears of every one that heareth it shall tingle.

12 In that day I will perform against Eli all things which I have spoken concerning his house: when I begin, I will also make an end.

13 For I have told him that I will judge his house for ever for the iniquity which he knoweth; because his sons made themselves vile, and he restrained them not.

14 And therefore I have sworn unto the house of Eli, that the iniquity of Eli's house shall not be purged with sacrifice nor offering for ever.

15 ¶ And Samuel lay until the morning, and opened the doors of the house of the LORD. And Samuel feared to show Eli the vision.

16 Then Eli called Samuel, and said, Samuel, my son. And he answered, Here am I.

17 And he said, What is the thing that the LORD hath said unto thee? I pray thee hide it not from me: God do so to thee, and more also, if thou hide any thing from me of all the things that he said unto thee.

18 And Samuel told him every whit, and hid nothing from him. And he said, It is the LORD: let him do what seemeth him good.

19 And Samuel grew, and the LORD was with him, and did let none of his words fall to the ground.

20 And all Israel, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, knew that Samuel was established to be a prophet of the LORD.

21 And the LORD appeared again in Shiloh: for the LORD revealed himself to Samuel in Shiloh by the word of the LORD.

CHAPTER IV.

1 Israel overcome by the Philistines. 11 The ark taken, and Hophni and Phinehas slain. 12 Eli, hearing the tidings, falls backward, and his neck breaks, etc.

AND the word of Samuel came to all Israel. Now Israel went out against the Philistines to battle, and pitched beside Eben-ezer: and the Philistines pitched in Aphek.

2 And the Philistines put themselves in array against Israel: and when they joined battle, Israel was smitten before the Philistines: and they slew of the army in the field about four thousand men.

3 ¶ And when the people were come into the camp, the elders of Israel said, Wherefore hath the LORD smitten us to-day before the Philistines? Let us fetch the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of Shiloh unto us, that, when it cometh among us, it may save us out of the hand of our enemies.

4 So the people sent to Shiloh, that they might bring from thence the ark of the covenant of the LORD of hosts, which dwelleth between the cherubim: and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God.

5 And when the ark of the covenant of the LORD came into the camp, all Israel shouted with a great shout, so that the earth rang again.

6 And when the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they said, What meaneth the noise of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews? And they understood that the ark of the LORD was come into the camp.

7 And the Philistines were afraid: for they said, God is come into the camp. And they said, Woe unto us! for there hath not been such a thing heretofore.

3 And they stood up in their place, and read in the book of the law of the LORD their God one fourth part of the day; and another fourth part they confessed, and worshipped the LORD their God.

4 Then stood up upon the stairs, of the Levites, Jeshua, and Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani, and cried with a loud voice unto the LORD their God.

5 Then the Levites, Jeshua, and Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabniah, Sherebiah, Hodijah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah, said, Stand up and bless the LORD your God for ever and ever: and blessed be thy glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise.

6 Thou, even thou, art LORD alone: thou hast made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with all their host, the earth, and all things that are therein, the seas, and all that is therein, and thou preservest them all; and the host of heaven worshippeth thee.

7 Thou art the LORD the God, who didst choose Abram, and broughtest him forth out of Ur of the Chaldees, and gavest him the name of Abraham:

8 And foundest his heart faithful before thee, and madest a covenant with him, to give the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Jebusites, and the Girgashites, to give it, I say, to his seed, and hast performed thy words; for thou art righteous:

9 And didst see the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and heardest their cry by the Red sea:

10 And showedst signs and wonders upon Pharaoh, and on all his servants, and on all the people of his land; for thou knewest that they dealt proudly against them: so didst thou get thee a name, as it is this day.

11 And thou didst divide the sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land; and their persecutors thou threwest into the deeps, as a stone into the mighty waters.

12 Moreover thou leddest them in the day by a cloudy pillar; and in the night by a pillar of fire, to give them light in the way wherein they should go.

13 Thou camest down also upon mount Sinai, and spakest with them from heaven, and gavest them right judgments, and true laws, good statutes and commandments:

14 And madest known unto them thy holy sabbath, and commandedst them precepts, statutes, and laws, by the hand of Moses thy servant:

15 And gavest them bread from heaven for their hunger, and broughtest forth water for them out of the rock for their thirst, and promisedst them that they should go in to possess the land which thou hadst sworn to give them.

16 But they and our fathers dealt proudly, and hardened their necks, and hearkened not to thy commandments,

17 And refused to obey, neither were mindful of thy wonders that thou didst among them; but hardened their necks, and in their rebellion appointed a captain to return to their bondage: but thou art a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and forsookest them not.

18 Yea, when they had made them a molten calf, and said, This is thy god that brought thee up out of Egypt, and had wrought great provocations;

19 Yet thou in thy manifold mercies forsookest them not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not from them by day, to lead them in the way; neither the pillar of fire by night, to show them light, and the way wherein they should go.

20 Thou gavest also thy good Spirit to instruct them, and withheldest not thy manna from their mouth, and gavest them water for their thirst.

21 Yea, forty years didst thou sustain them in the wilderness, so that they lacked nothing; their clothes waxed not old, and their feet swelled not.

22 Moreover thou gavest them kingdoms and nations, and didst divide them into corners: so they possessed the land of Sihon, and the land of the king of Heshbon, and the land of Og king of Bashan.

23 Their children also multipliedst thou as the stars of heaven, and broughtest them into the land concerning which thou hadst promised to their fathers, that they should go in to possess it.

24 So the children went in and possessed the land, and thou subduedst before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and gavest them into their hands, with their kings, and the people of the land, that they might do with them as they would.

6 Even the prophet Jeremiah said, Amen: the LORD do so: the LORD perform thy words which thou hast prophesied, to bring again the vessels of the LORD's house, and all that is carried away captive, from Babylon into this place.

7 Nevertheless hear thou now this word that I speak in thine ears, and in the ears of all the people;

8 The prophets that have been before me and before thee of old prophesied both against many countries, and against great kingdoms, of war, and of evil, and of pestilence.

9 The prophet which prophesieth of peace, when the word of the prophet shall come to pass, then shall the prophet be known, that the LORD hath truly sent him.

10 ¶ Then Hananiah the prophet took the yoke from off the prophet Jeremiah's neck, and brake it.

11 And Hananiah spake in the presence of all the people, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Even so will I break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon from the neck of all nations within the space of two full years. And the prophet Jeremiah went his way.

12 ¶ Then the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah the prophet, (after that Hananiah the prophet had broken the yoke from off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah,) saying,

13 Go and tell Hananiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Thou hast broken the yokes of wood; but thou shalt make for them yokes of iron.

14 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; I have put a yoke of iron upon the neck of all these nations, that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and they shall serve him: and I have given him the beasts of the field also.

15 ¶ Then said the prophet Jeremiah unto Hananiah the prophet, Hear now, Hananiah; The LORD hath not sent thee; but thou makest this people to trust in a lie.

16 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will cast thee from off the face of the earth: this year thou shalt die, because thou hast taught rebellion against the LORD.

17 So Hananiah the prophet died the same year, in the seventh month.

NOW these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem unto the residue of the elders which were carried away captives, and to the priests, and to the prophets, and to all the people whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon,

2 (After that Jeconiah the king, and the queen, and the eunuchs, the princes of Judah and Jerusalem, and the carpenters, and the smiths, were departed from Jerusalem,)

3 By the hand of Elasah the son of Shaphan, and Gemariah the son of Hilkiah, (whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent unto Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon,) saying,

4 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, unto all that are carried away captives, whom I have caused to be carried away from Jerusalem unto Babylon;

5 Build ye houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them;

6 Take ye wives, and beget sons and daughters; and take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to husbands, that they may bear sons and daughters; that ye may be increased there, and not diminished.

7 And seek the peace of the city whither I have caused you to be carried away captives, and pray unto the LORD for it: for in the peace thereof shall ye have peace.

21 Have [h] ye not known? have ye not heard? hath it not been told you from the beginning? have ye not understood from the foundations of the earth?

22 15 It is he that sitteth upon the circle of the earth, and the inhabitants thereof are as grasshoppers; that [i] stretcheth out the heavens as a curtain, and spreadeth them out as a tent to dwell in:

23 That bringeth the princes to nothing; he maketh the judges of the earth as vanity.

24 Yea, they shall not be planted; yea, they shall not be sown; yea, their stock shall not take root in the earth: and he shall also blow upon them, and they shall wither, and the whirlwind shall take them away as stubble.

25 To [k] whom then will ye liken me, or shall I be equal? saith the Holy One.

26 Lift up your eyes on high, and behold who hath created these things, that bringeth out their host by number: [l] he calleth them all by names by the greatness of his might, for that he is strong in power; not one faileth.

27 Why sayest thou, O Jacob, and speakest, O Israel, My way is hid from the LORD, and my judgment is passed over from my God?

28 Hast thou not known, hast thou not heard, that the everlasting God, the LORD, the Creator of the ends of the earth, fainteth not, neither is weary? [m] there is no searching of his understanding.

29 He giveth power to the faint; and to them that have no might he increaseth strength.

30 Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall:

31 But they that [n] wait upon the LORD shall 16 renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.

CHAPTER XLI.

1 God displays his merciful providence in regard of his church. 21 Vanity of idols.

KEEP silence before me, O islands; and let the people renew their strength: let them come near, then let them speak: let us come near together to judgment.

2 Who raised up [1] the righteous man [c] from the east, called him to his foot, gave [o] the nations before him, and made him rule over kings? he gave them as the dust to his sword, and as driven stubble to his bow.

3 He pursued them, and passed [2] safely; even by the way that he had not gone with his feet.

4 Who [c] hath wrought and done it, calling the generations from the beginning? I the LORD, the [d] first, and with the last; I am he.

5 The isles saw it, and feared; the ends of the earth were afraid, drew near, and came.

6 They helped every one his neighbour; and every one said to his brother, [3] Be of good courage.

7 So the carpenter encouraged the [4] goldsmith, and he that smoothoth with the hammer [5] him that smote the anvil, [6] saying, It is ready for the soldering: and he fastened it with nails, that it should not be moved.

8 But thou, Israel, art my servant, Jacob whom I have chosen, the seed of Abraham my [e] friend.

9 Thou whom I have taken from the ends of the earth, and called thee from the chief men thereof, and said unto thee, Thou art my servant; I have chosen thee, and not cast thee away.

10 ¶ Fear thou not; [f] for I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness.

11 Behold, all they that were incensed against thee shall be [p] ashamed and confounded: they shall be as nothing; and 7 they that strive with thee shall perish.

12 Thou shalt seek them, and shalt not find them, even [8] them that contended with thee: [9] they that war against thee shall be as nothing, and as a thing of nought.

13 For I the LORD thy God will hold thy right hand, saying unto thee, Fear not; I will help thee.

14 Fear not, thou worm Jacob, and ye 10 men of Israel; I will help thee, saith the LORD, and [h] thy Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel.

15 Behold, [i] I will make thee a new sharp threshing instrument having teeth: thou shalt thresh the mountains, and beat them small, and shalt make the hills as chaff.

16 Thou shalt [j] fan them, and the wind shall carry them away, and the whirlwind shall scatter them: and thou shalt rejoice in the LORD, and shalt glory in the Holy One of Israel.

17 When the poor and needy seek water, and there is none, and their tongue faileth for thirst, I the LORD will hear them, I the God of Israel will not forsake them.

18 I will open [k] rivers in high places, and fountains in the midst of the valleys: I will make the [l] wilderness a pool of water, and the dry land springs of water.

19 I will plant in the wilderness the cedar, the shittah tree, and the myrtle, and the oil tree; I will set in the [q] desert the fir tree, and the pine, and the box tree together;

20 That [m] they may see, and know, and consider, and understand together, that the hand of the LORD hath done this, and the Holy One of Israel hath created it.

21 ¶ 12 Produce your cause, saith the LORD; bring forth your strong reasons, saith the King of Jacob.

22 Let them bring them forth, and show us what shall happen: let them show the former things, what they be, that we may 13 consider them, and know the latter end of them; or declare us things for to come.

23 Show [n] the things that are to come hereafter, that we may know that ye are gods: yea, [o] do good, or do evil, that we may be dismayed, and behold it together.

24 Behold, ye are 14 of nothing, and your work 15 of nought: an abomination is he that chooseth you.

25 I have raised up one from the north, and he shall come: from the rising of the sun [r] shall he call upon my name; and he shall come upon princes as upon mortar, and as the potter treadeth clay.

26 Who hath declared from the beginning, that we may know? and beforetime, that

13 And Haman told Zeresh his wife and all his friends every thing that had befallen him. Then said his wise men and Zeresh his wife unto him, If Mordecai be of the seed of the Jews, before whom thou hast begun to fall, thou shalt not prevail against him, but shalt surely fall before him.

14 And while they were yet talking with him, came the king's chamberlains, and hasted to bring Haman unto the banquet that Esther had prepared.

CHAPTER VII.

1 Esther sues for her own life and the life of her people. 7 The king causes Haman to be hanged on his own gallows.

SO the king and Haman came [1] to banquet with Esther the queen.

2 And the king said again unto Esther on the second day, [a] at the banquet of wine, What is thy petition, queen Esther? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? and it shall be performed, even to the half of the kingdom.

3 Then Esther the queen answered and said, If I have found favour in thy sight, O king, and if it please the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people at my request:

4 For we are [b] sold, I and my people, [2] to be destroyed, to be slain, and to perish. But if we had been sold for bondmen and bondwomen, I had held my tongue, although the enemy could not countervail the king's damage.

5 ¶ Then the king Ahasuerus answered and said unto Esther the queen, Who is he, and where is he, [3] that durst presume in his heart to do so?

6 And Esther said, [4] The adversary and enemy is this wicked Haman. Then Haman was afraid [5] before the king and the queen.

7 ¶ And the king, arising from the banquet of wine in his wrath, went into the palace garden: and [c] Haman stood up to make request for his life to Esther the queen; for he saw that there was evil determined against him by the king.

8 Then the king returned out of the palace garden into the place of the banquet of wine; and Haman was fallen upon [d] the bed whereon Esther was. Then said the king, Will he force the queen also [6] before me in the house? As the word went out of the king's mouth, they [e] covered Haman's face.

9 And [f] Harbonah, one of the chamberlains, said before the king, Behold also, [g] the [7] gallows, fifty cubits high, which Haman had made for Mordecai, who [h] had spoken good for the king, standeth in the house of Haman. Then the king said, Hang him thereon.

10 So [i] they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then was the king's wrath pacified.

ON that day did the king Ahasuerus give the house of Haman, the Jews' enemy, unto Esther the queen: and Mordecai came before the king; for Esther had told what [a] he was unto her.

2 And the king took off [b] his ring, which he had taken from Haman, and gave it unto Mordecai. And Esther set Mordecai over the house of Haman.

3 ¶ And Esther spake yet again before the king, and fell down at his feet, [1] and besought him with tears to put away the mischief of Haman the Agagite, and his device that he had devised against the Jews.

4 Then [c] the king held out the golden sceptre toward Esther. So Esther arose, and stood before the king,

5 And said, If it please the king, and if I have found favour in his sight, and the thing seem right before the king, and I be pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to reverse [2] the letters devised by Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, [3] which he wrote to destroy the Jews which are in all the king's provinces:

6 For how can I [4] endure to see [d] the evil that shall come unto my people? or how can I endure to see the destruction of my kindred?

7 ¶ Then the king Ahasuerus said unto Esther the queen, and to Mordecai the Jew, Behold, [e] I have given Esther the house of Haman, and him they have hanged upon the gallows, because he laid his hand upon the Jews.

8 Write ye also for the Jews, as it liketh you, in the king's name, and seal it with the king's ring: for the writing which is written in the king's name, and sealed with the king's ring, [f] may no man reverse.

9 Then [g] were the king's scribes called at that time in the third month, that is, the month Sivan, on the three and twentieth day thereof; and it was written (according to all that Mordecai commanded) unto the Jews, and to the lieutenants, and the deputies and rulers of the provinces which are [h] from India unto Ethiopia, an hundred twenty and seven provinces, unto every province [i] according to the writing thereof, and unto every people after their language, and to the Jews according to their writing, and according to their language.

10 And [j] he wrote in the king Ahasuerus' name, and sealed it with the king's ring; and sent letters by posts on horseback, and riders on mules, camels, and young dromedaries:

11 Wherein the king granted the Jews which were in every city to gather themselves together, and to stand for their life, to destroy, to slay, and to cause to perish, all the power of the people and province that would assault them, both little ones and women, and [k] to take the spoil of them for a prey,

12 Upon [l] one day, in all the provinces of king Ahasuerus, namely, upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar.

13 The [m] copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province was [5] published unto all people, and that the Jews should be ready against that day to avenge themselves on their enemies.

14 So the posts that rode upon mules and camels went out, being hastened and pressed on by the king's commandment. And the decree was given at Shushan the palace.

15 ¶ And Mordecai went out from the presence of the king in royal apparel of [6] blue and white, and with a great crown of gold, and with a garment of fine linen and purple: and [n] the city of Shushan rejoiced and was glad.

his wife looked on it, and [i] fell on their faces to the ground.

21 But the angel of the LORD did no more appear to Manoah and to his wife. [m] Then Manoah knew that he was an angel of the LORD.

22 And Manoah said unto his wife, [n] We shall surely die, because we have seen God.

23 But his wife said unto him, If the LORD were pleased to kill us, he would not have received a burnt offering and a meat offering at our hands, neither would he have showed [o] us all these things, nor would as at this time have told us such things as these.

24 ¶ And the woman bare a son, and called his name [7] Samson: and the [p] child grew, and the LORD blessed him.

25 And [q] the Spirit of the LORD began to move him at times in [8] the camp of Dan between [r] Zorah and Eshtaol.

14 And he said unto them, Out of the eater came forth meat, and out of the strong came forth sweetness. And they could not in three days expound the riddle.

15 And it came to pass on the seventh day, that they said unto Samson's wife, [k] Entice thy husband, that he may declare unto us the riddle, [l] lest we burn thee and thy father's house with fire: have ye called us [4] to take that we have? is it not so?

14 Then the LORD said unto me, The prophets prophesy lies in my name: I [n] sent them not, neither have I commanded them, neither spake unto them: they prophesy unto you a false vision and divination, and a thing of nought, and the deceit of their heart.

of the king of Babylon's army, which shall take it.

4 Therefore the princes said unto the king, We beseech thee, [f] let this man be put to death; for thus he weakeneth the hands of the men of war that remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words unto them: for this man seeketh not the [1] welfare of this people, but the hurt.

5 Then Zedekiah the king said, Behold, he is [g] in your hand: for the king is not he that can do any thing against you.

6 Then [h] took they Jeremiah, and cast him into [i] the dungeon of Malchiah the son [2] of Hammelech, that was in the court of the prison: and they let down Jeremiah with cords. And in the dungeon there was no water, but mire: so Jeremiah sunk in the mire.

7 ¶ Now, [j] when Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, one of the eunuchs which was in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon, (the king then sitting [k] in the gate of Benjamin,)

8 Ebed-melech went forth out of the king's house, and [l] spake to the king, saying,

9 My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon; and [3] he is like to die for hunger in the place where he is: for there is no more bread in the city.

10 Then the king commanded Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Take from hence thirty men [4] with thee, and take up Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon, before he die.

11 So Ebed-melech took the men with him, and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took thence old cast clouts and old rotten rags, and let them down by cords into the dungeon to Jeremiah.

12 And [m] Ebed-melech the Ethiopian said unto Jeremiah, Put now these old cast clouts and rotten rags under thine arm holes under the cords. And Jeremiah did so.

13 So they drew up Jeremiah with cords, and took him up out of the dungeon: and Jeremiah remained [n] in the court of the prison.

14 ¶ Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took Jeremiah the prophet unto him into the [5] third entry that is in the house of the LORD: and the king said unto Jeremiah, I will ask thee a thing; hide nothing from me.

15 Then Jeremiah said unto Zedekiah, If I declare it unto thee, wilt thou not surely put me to death? and if I give thee counsel, wilt thou not hearken unto me?

16 So Zedekiah the king sware secretly unto Jeremiah, saying, As the LORD liveth, [o] that made us this soul, I will not put thee to death, neither will I give thee into the hand of these men that seek thy life.

17 Then said Jeremiah unto Zedekiah, Thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel; If thou wilt assuredly [p] go forth unto the king of Babylon's princes, then thy soul shall live, and this city shall not be burnt with fire; and thou shalt live, and thine house:

18 But if thou wilt not go forth to the king of Babylon's princes, then shall this city be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, and they shall burn it with fire, and thou [q] shalt not escape out of their hand.

19 And Zedekiah the king said unto Jeremiah, I [r] am afraid of the Jews that are fallen to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they [s] mock me.

20 But Jeremiah said, They shall not deliver thee. Obey, I [t] beseech thee, the voice of the LORD, which I speak unto thee: so it shall be well unto thee, and thy soul shall live.

21 But if thou refuse to go forth, this is the word that the LORD hath showed me:

22 And, behold, all the women that are left in the king of Judah's house shall be brought forth to the king of Babylon's princes, and those women shall say, [6] Thy friends have set thee on, and have prevailed against thee; thy feet are sunk in the mire, and they are turned away back.

23 So they shall bring out all thy wives and thy [u] children to the Chaldeans: and thou shalt not escape out of their hand, but shalt be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon; and [7] thou shalt cause this city to be burnt with fire.

24 ¶ Then said Zedekiah unto Jeremiah, Let no man know of

PROSPECTUS OF

THE SANS SOUCI SERIES.

Personal Reminiscences of Famous Poets and Novelists, Wits and Humorists, Artists, Actors, Musicians, and the like.

EDITED BY

RICHARD HENRY STODDARD.

"Of more value
Than stamps in gold, or sums in sealed bags."—
SHAKESPEARE.

The SANS SOUCI SERIES is based upon the same general idea that secured such sudden and deserved popularity for the BRIC-A-BRAC SERIES. In the ten volumes of that collection were carefully gathered up the choicest gleanings from numerous biographies and memoirs published during the last quarter of a century, and nearly all of which would have disappeared into oblivion altogether, had it not been for this happy conception, by which the wheat that they contained was thus separated from the chaff. But distinguished men and women, or those who have been on intimate relations with them, are constantly passing away; and biographies, autobiographies, and memoirs are appearing with a rapidity never before equalled. Those wishing to learn the lessons that are taught by the lives of the great and good, as they are rehearsed in these volumes, are anxious to get at them as directly as possible; those who read them for amusement are impatient of the time lost in finding for themselves the entertaining and the amusing. The skill with which Mr. Stoddard performed this service of gathering for the BRIC-A-BRAC SERIES all that deserved to be saved for its worth or for its wit, is the only introduction he needs as Editor of the SANS SOUCI SERIES. While it shall be the chief aim of this series to keep abreast of current biographies and memoirs, it will also venture into fields which have heretofore been left untouched. Our own revolutionary period, and certain important epochs in French and English history, which are best illustrated by the personal characteristics of the men who were prominent in them, will receive attention. While permanent value will thus be given to this collection, the purpose of the series, as expressed in the title, shall never be lost sight of, and every care shall be taken to make each volume an agreeable companion for the hours of "idleness and ease."

A Most Sumptuous Illustrated Work on

INDIA,

AND ITS NATIVE PRINCES.

Translated from the French of Louis Rousselet. With 317 illustrations, from designs by the most celebrated artists, many of them full-page.

One vol. super-royal quarto, in the following styles:

I. Cloth, full gilt edges, with elegant and elaborate stamp in gilt and black, $25 00
II. Half morocco extra, full gilt edges..... 30 00
III. Morocco, full gilt..... 35 00

There is no country in which may be found so much of the romantic, venerable, and wonderful as in India. Its history is so linked in with the growth of languages and religions, that scholars find a field for limitless research in its past. Its ruins, and the inscriptions they bear, are full of interest to the archæologist; its temples furnish wonderful examples of the majestic and beautiful in architecture; its forests and jungles abound in the noblest game, upon which the sportsman can exercise his skill; and its native princes, notwithstanding their diminished power and numbers, still maintain a degree of magnificent luxury, which is best described as oriental. M. Rousselet spent nearly five years in this wonderful country. During that time he traversed nearly every section of it, and he improved to the utmost the extraordinary facilities for observation which he enjoyed. He was received as an honored guest at several of the courts, and with some of the most powerful of the native princes he came to be upon terms of intimate personal friendship. Rhinoceros and elephant fights and royal hunting parties were organized in his honor. Graphic descriptions of these exciting spectacles alternate with accounts of the manners and customs of the people, of the famous jugglers, of the dances of the Nantoh girls, of the serpent charmers, and of the various other innumerable institutions of the East, which are in such strong contrast with the quiet life of more civilized countries. Everywhere that the pencil can aid the pen, illustrations, exquisitely engraved and printed, are given; while maps, most carefully drawn, represent the topographical features of the country, and reproduce the route of the traveler. As a whole, the superb quarto is one of the most perfect specimens of book making ever offered to the American public.

ON GLOBES.

The Globe is the truest and most natural, indeed, cartographically speaking, the only accurate representation of the Earth. All flat map-projections must necessarily contain errors, which will increase in proportion to the area of the Earth's surface which they are intended to represent. The Mercator projection, supposing we join the ends of a Map of the World together, produces a cylinder, and, in different latitudes, presents widely different scales. If we place side by side planiglobes based on other projections, they touch each other only at one point (whilst in fact they ought to touch each other at all points of the periphery), and give the countries according to scales very different, or in a measure distorted and disarranged.

The Globe is, consequently, a most important, indeed an indispensable auxiliary in geographical instruction; and, where means will permit, the Relief Globe, on account of its manifest preëminence, should be used.

On the Globe alone can the teacher present to the pupil the whole Earth in its natural form.

On the Globe can easily be explained those points and mathematical lines which require elucidation as being the very groundwork of Geography: the poles, the meridians, the parallels, the equator, the tropics, the polar circles, and the ecliptic.

On the Globe the teacher can readily explain the lighting of the Earth at different times of the day; the diurnal revolution of the Earth, the synchronism of sunrise, midday and sunset in any two given places upon the same meridian, the difference of the time of day between places not upon the same meridian. All this the pupil can see with his own eyes, and, therefore, thoroughly understand.

On a Globe provided with a Meridian, the lighting and heating of the Earth at various seasons may be elucidated; to which may easily be associated explanations of the climatic differences of the zones, the trade-winds, the winds arising from climatic differences, as the monsoon, etc.

On the Globe we get the real form of the countries and seas. We have no flat map of the Pacific or Atlantic Ocean which is correct in every direction and at all points; their representation on a flat surface makes errors inevitable. Consequently, on a Globe the great lines, too, of transmarine trade, of circumnavigation, of the telegraphs encircling the whole Earth, are made out with certainty and accuracy.

It must be allowed that the larger Globes have some slight drawbacks, inasmuch as they cannot be put into the pupil's hands, and the minuteness of the drawing and names makes their use at a distance impossible. This little difficulty has been surmounted. For the demonstration of problems, etc., the teacher uses the largest Globe at command. Pupils have Globes of small size in their hands. These little Globes are very cheap, and contain, in the main, everything necessary for elucidating the elementary principles of general mathematical Geography. They also give the chief countries and seas, and the lines of circumnavigation.

Whilst the foregoing is said with special reference to Terrestrial Globes, it is needless to mention that analogous arguments hold good in regard to Celestial Globes.

The more advanced pupil will also find the Tellurian a valuable aid in the study of mathematical Geography. The synchronism and regularity of the Earth's revolution on its axis, as well as of its revolution round the Sun, and of the Moon's revolution round the Earth, may be traced and understood in every phase by this apparatus. Above all, this is the most direct and practical means of making evident to the pupil eclipses of the Sun and Moon, the inclination of the Earth's axis to its orbit, etc., etc.

AWARDED, AT VIENNA, 1873, FOR
J. Schedler's Globes.

J. SCHEDLER'S GLOBES

have long occupied a prominent rank among all Globes produced in America, and are now admitted to be the best Globes in the Market.

They are unsurpassed for beauty of workmanship and durability no less than for the accuracy of the maps—an assertion which a comparison with other Globes, American or Imported, will fully bear out.

It is of the first importance that new geographical discoveries and territorial changes be promptly reproduced on the Globes. This is being constantly done with Schedler's, and it is one ground of the universal favor which they enjoy.

The following Catalogue shows that there are at present no less than 60 different numbers of these Globes on sale, some of the styles being quite novel.

II A. and III A.

SCHEDLER'S TERRESTRIAL GLOBES, OF 20 INCHES DIAMETER.

The Scientific Globe.

This is the most elaborate Globe ever produced. Not only does it give the latest authenticated discoveries in various parts of the World, but, in addition, it contains a large fund of interesting information on physical matters.

It contains the Lines of Ocean Steam Communication and Overland Routes, the great overland and submarine Telegraph Lines, and the principal Tracks of Sailing Vessels; showing the directions and mean velocity of the Ocean Currents, important Deep Sea Soundings, also the lines of Equal Magnetic Variations.

II A. The Scientific Globe. Complete. On bronzed pedestal-frame, 42 inches high. With horizon, (cast-iron, nickel-plated) meridian divided into half-degrees, hour-circle, and quadrant. 75.00 [5.00]

II B. The Scientific Globe. With full meridian. On bronzed pedestal-frame, with full (cast-iron) meridian, and inclined axis. 60.00 [4.00]

II C. The Scientific Globe. Plain. On plain iron stand, with inclined axis. 55.00 [4.00]

The High School Globe.

In size, form and fixtures, this Globe is similar to the Scientific Globe.

It is specially designed for the use of Colleges and High Schools. All matters represented, and all names, notwithstanding their multiplicity, are kept clear and distinct, and confusion is avoided. By it the fundamental and elementary principles of geography, so difficult to the learner, are readily explained. The most important rivers, capital cities and mountain ranges, are given as distinctly as possible. This Globe, therefore, commends itself to parents and teachers as an essential aid in instruction. Its practical utility cannot fail to be recognized in Schools; it has already been received with great favor by eminent instructors in many of our Normal and High Schools, who have strongly testified to its value; and it may be confidently offered as better adapted for the instruction of youth than any Terrestrial Globe hitherto constructed.

SCHEDLER'S Celestial Globes.

The most difficult task in the preparation of a Celestial Globe is to present clearly the configurations of the stars, and the constellations, as two distinct subject-matters.

To effect this, SCHEDLER's Celestial Globes are printed in a manner never hitherto adopted. The stars are printed in black upon a sky-blue ground, so that their configuration strikes the eye forcibly and at once. The figures of the constellations, and the various designations of the stars by letters, numbers, etc., are printed in purple.

This method of printing completely obviates the indistinctness and confusion otherwise certain to arise from the multiplicity of objects delineated.

The several subjects are at once grasped by the eye, and present, at the same time, a very beautiful appearance.

These Globes are, moreover, eminently conspicuous for their accuracy, clearness and elegance: indeed, taking into account their manifold and acknowledged superiority, it may fairly be stated that never have any of equal excellence been offered to the public.

All the Celestial Globes hitherto published are so overcrowded, and the various subjects are so confused, that the very first essential of a Celestial Globe, viz., to present, as totally distinct, the configurations of the stars and the constellations, is utterly wanting.

Mr. SCHEDLER's aim was to remove these drawbacks, and he has completely succeeded in producing Celestial Globes which will prove valuable auxiliaries as well to the accomplished astronomer as to the tyro.

To delineate in a specially characteristic manner, and to throw into relief by color, the various celestial signs, as usually done, is a complete mistake. These uncouth figures detract from the impression which should be created by the outlines of the stars themselves, and are rather prejudicial than favorable to instruction. They form a misleading medley of figures, which is simply annoying and confusing: since no possible assistance is given to one desirous of studying the heavens, by the figure of a "Hercules' club" or a "crown of Cepheus". Such old figures of constellations are only a remainder of the uncultivated spirit of antiquity which strove thereby to aid the memory in astronomical studies.

(Sir JOHN F. W. HERSCHEL says in his Outlines of Astronomy: "Those uncouth figures and outlines of men and monsters, which are usually scribbled over Celestial Globes and Maps, and serve, in a rude and barbarous way, to enable us to talk of groups of stars, or districts in the heavens, by names, absurd or puerile in their origin, are entirely arbitrary, and correspond to no natural sub-divisions or groupings of the stars. Astronomers treat them lightly, or altogether disregard them.

"This disregard is neither supercilious nor causeless. The constellations seem to have been almost purposely named and delineated to cause as much confusion and inconvenience as possible. Innumerable snakes twine through long and contorted areas of the heavens, where no memory can follow them; bears, lions, and fishes, large and small, northern and southern, confuse all nomenclature, etc., etc.")

The most patient care has been bestowed upon these Globes: they contain, too, the latest results of Astronomical Science as given by the best authorities.

In their preparation, Mr. SCHEDLER has enjoyed the rare advantage of the advice and suggestions of our eminent astronomer, Prof. Peters, of the Clinton Observatory.

SCHEDLER's Celestial Globes give all the stars visible to the naked eye up to the sixth magnitude. The signs indicating magnitudes are given in true and natural proportions, and in such a manner as to preclude all mistakes.

The Greek and Roman letters refer to Bayer's classification of stars: the numbers are arranged according to the Catalogues of Flamsteed, Piazzi, Bradley, Hevelius and La Caille. The double stars are from Sir Fred. W. Herschel and Struve: the magnitudes given are according to Argelander, reduced to the year 1870.

The fittings of the three sizes of Celestial Globes now published, are exactly similar to those of the corresponding sizes and styles of Terrestrial Globes: thus, those desirous of procuring them in pairs, can have them precisely matching each other.

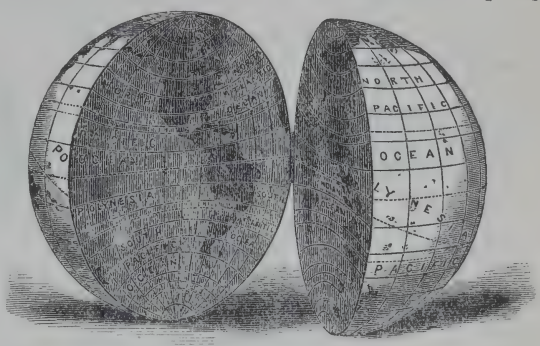
Hemisphere



TERRESTRIAL GLOBES, OF 6 INCHES DIAMETER.

The two styles of Hemisphere Globe mentioned below are a most important addition to cheap school apparatus. In both, the arrangement at once shows the learner why the lines on a map must be curved; how impossible it is to depict perfectly any part of the Globe on a flat Map, or to represent on such a map, in their correct form, and in complete unity, countries and seas in their natural proportions, position, distances, etc. For it is clear that a sphere or part of a sphere cannot be accurately represented upon a flat surface. The juxtaposition of the Hemisphere Globe with the Planisphere Map proves this to evidence, inasmuch as the comparison of the two shows very distinctly how distorted and disarranged all the parts of the Earth appear upon the Planisphere Map.

VII E. The Hand Hemisphere Globe. With hinge. 3.00 [0.40]

This style consists of two half-globes, or hemispheres, connected by a hinge. When closed they form a handy little globe; when opened, the planiglobes are found inside.

Beyond the above mentioned advantages, the Hand Hemisphere Globe is extremely useful in the school-room. It can be passed from hand to hand, whilst the teacher is explaining the lesson; it is light, and yet so strongly made that no amount of ordinary wear and tear will affect it, and besides being really hard to break, it is extremely cheap.

The Wall Hemisphere Globe.

(Patented October 21st, 1873.)

VII F. Planisphere Maps and Hemisphere Globes combined. Mounted on pasteboard. 3.75 [0.40]

In this style the two hemispheres are mounted side by side on pasteboard, the two planiglobes being placed above them. The Wall Hemisphere Globe can thus be hung on the wall of a study or school-room, and, whilst forming a very attractive ornament, is a very compendious, albeit a diminutive repertory of geographical and other information, as the available space on the mounting is occupied with statistics of prime importance to the beginner in geography.

These statistics comprise the area and population of the various States and Territories of the Union in 1870; the population of thirty of the chief cities in the United States; the area and population of the various continents; the area and population of the main divisions of the American Continent, and other leading geographical data.

Besides the foregoing, the Wall Hemisphere Globe has another very strong recommendation, viz. its very low price, which makes it peculiarly adapted for general use, as there is not a single school in the country which cannot afford to provide itself with at least one of these Globes.

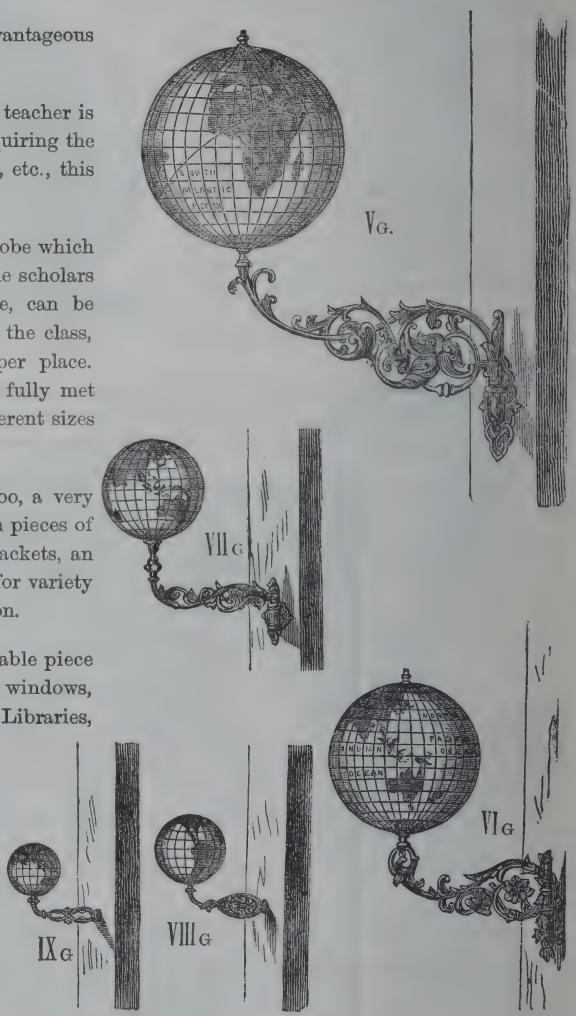
BRACKET-GLOBES.



This is an entirely novel and most advantageous method of mounting the Globe.

For Common Schools, in which the teacher is not, as a rule, engaged in problems requiring the Globe to have stand, meridian, horizon, etc., this is the best kind.

The teacher needs an inexpensive Globe which can be placed beyond the reach of the scholars and the danger of accidental damage, can be readily taken down and handed round the class, and as quickly put back in its proper place. All these requirements will be found fully met in the Bracket-Globe, of which five different sizes are offered.

The Bracket-Globe will be found, too, a very useful and elegant addition to all such pieces of furniture as can be fitted with the Brackets, an arrangement allowing unlimited scope for variety both in richness of design and execution.

These Globes can be fixed to any suitable piece of furniture, as well as to mirror-frames, windows, blind-doors, etc. etc., in Offices, Clubs, Libraries, Drawing-Rooms, Alcoves, Bay-Windows, and, indeed, in almost any portion of an apartment where there is spare room for an ornamental and uncumbersome piece of furniture. The Brackets offered by me, whilst elegant and pleasing in design, are both substantial and cheap.

SLATED GLOBES.

These Globes have a black slate surface, which readily takes a slate-pencil mark. They are admirably adapted for illustrating those principles and facts in Geography and Astronomy which are most difficult of elucidation to the pupil.

Each slated Globe is furnished with a thin brass Guide, which serves, at the same time, as a meridian. This band is divided into sections of 10 degrees each. The pupil places, with his left hand, his pencil in one of the holes given on the line of the degree, and, with the right hand, turns the Globe round to the right. Thereby a line is drawn upon the Globe which forms a parallel of latitude. The pupil then proceeds thus to draw all the parallels of latitude.

In the middle of the Guide there is a lateral projection, from the extreme left of which to the extreme right of the Guide is a distance of 10 degrees. The pupil takes hold, with his left hand, of the button in the middle of the Guide, and draws with his pencil, down the meridian, a straight line from the North to the South pole. Thereby a degree of longitude is formed.

The pupil then marks a point at the extreme left of the projection on the middle of the meridian, turns the Globe to the right until this point appears on the extreme right of the meridian, again draws a line from the North to the South pole, and thus continues until he has drawn every tenth degree of longitude.

The pupil thus traces a perfect net of degrees, and can then proceed to draw countries, etc. etc., on the Globe, according to a given Map, or if further advanced, from memory.

With the use of these Globes a solid grounding in Geography is acquired. The teacher can at once begin object-lessons, by showing things, and not merely representations of them. Pupils are taught not simply the names of geographical lines, but what these lines are, their purpose, and, what is more important, how to draw according to them.

Multitudes of facts and phenomena can be explained and illustrated so simply and clearly that any child can understand them. The most obscure theorems and problems of Spherical Geometry, Trigonometry and Navigation, become, when studied in connection with the Sphere, perfectly intelligible.

BLACK WALNUT GLOBE STANDS.

The accompanying illustrations sufficiently explain themselves.

These stands, as offered by me, are of black walnut, nicely finished and varnished, simple in design, but solid, and cheap. They afford a field for the display of much taste in design and can be made by cabinet-makers to match any style and quality of furniture. They occupy but little room, are portable, and, as the Globe is not fastened to them, can, as occasion may require, be used for a variety of purposes. Thus they are highly acceptable for Offices, Clubs, Libraries, Parlors, Drawing-Rooms, Alcoves, Bay-Windows, and, indeed, in almost any portion of an apartment where there is room to spare for an ornamental and uncumbersome piece of furniture.

Tellurian and School Clock combined.

J. TROLL'S Automatic Tellurian,

OR

ASTRONOMICAL CLOCK.

The exceeding usefulness of the Tellurian for illustrating the relative positions of the Sun, Earth, and Moon, and the phenomena resulting therefrom, is admitted on all hands. Expense has hitherto been the chief bar to the general use of this valuable auxiliary. Mr. J. Troll has not only produced such an instrument at a low price, but, by the verdict of competent authorities, has invented the simplest, most perfect, and most practical one yet offered to educators.

Troll's Automatic Tellurian is so constructed that, by means of the clock-work, its movements are made to agree exactly with those of the Earth and Moon, that is to say, the Earth will revolve around its axis once in 24 hours, the Moon around the Earth once in 27⅓ [29½] days, the Earth around the Sun in 365¼ days. The clock-work may, however, be easily disconnected, and then, by means of the gearing, the astronomical phenomena can be shown as quickly as instruction in the class-room may require.

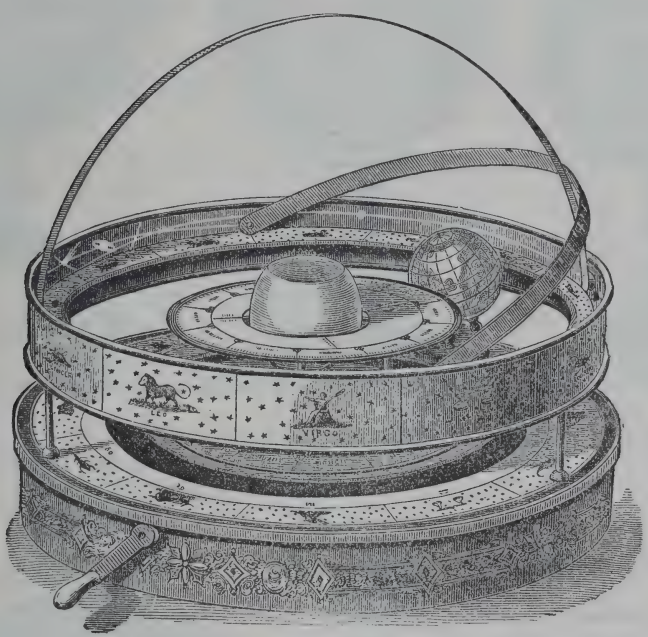
Price $50.00.

Packing $1.00 extra.

Portable stand $5.00.

The clock (of which the above illustration shows the reverse) may be turned on the hinge so as to face the class, and will serve as a common school clock.

By means of the bracket, with which it is provided, Troll's *Tellurian may be screwed on permanently in a suitable place. A portable stand, however, will enable the proper showing of the Tellurian successively in different places.



A full instruction for its use may be had gratis.

THE STELLAR TELLURIAN,

WITH

Jackson's Mathematical Geography, Manual for the Instrument, Celestial Hemispheres, and Key.

The whole forming a complete illustrated course of Astronomy, for Schools, Colleges, Public and Private Libraries.

The instrument is, at present, made of two sizes:

No. 1. 18 inches Diameter . . . . . 75.00 [2.00]

No. 2. 36 inches Diameter . . . . . 115.00 [3.00]

(each including a copy of JACKSON'S Mathematical Geography, with a complete Manual of Directions, for the use of the apparatus).

This elegant and instructive instrument probably stands unrivaled among Astronomical Illustrative Apparatus. No other instrument professes to accomplish more than a small part of what this actually does.

It is so substantially made that nothing short of absolute violence can put it out of order.

The object of this instrument is to simplify the theory of Celestial Mechanics by making their manifold results evident to the eye of the learner.

The exact proportion between the heavenly bodies is preserved where possible. This instrument is capable of illustrating no less than seventy-six problems or theorems of Mathematical Geography and Astronomy.

Accompanying the instrument, and included in its price, is a copy of JACKSON'S Mathematical Geography. This work was not, at first, adapted to any particular apparatus; but about a year ago, its author's attention was first called to the Stellar Tellurian, when he became so fully convinced of its great superiority, that, at his suggestion, several valuable improvements were added. He has since, at the request of the managers, added to his book a Manual for this instrument.

A. Petermann's

NEW MAP OF THE UNITED STATES.

6 Plates, together measuring 28 × 50 inches. In sheets. 3.50

Mounted on muslin, varnished, with rollers. 5.00 [0.75]

It may be fairly said that until the publication of this Map (March 1874), there was really not one extant which fully embodied the latest results of geographical study and exploration in regard to the United States.

By its production, PETERMANN has made this country a debtor to the scientific enterprise of Germany.

Appreciating the great value of his services in such an undertaking, the United States Authorities placed at his disposal all the official material at their command. The result has been an expression of opinion from Washington that this Map excels all previous ones, and surpasses the boldest anticipation of those best qualified to judge of the great geographer and his work.

Want of space forbids the enumeration of the many individual points in which this Map has absolutely no competitor; it is sufficient to say that the closer the examination, the more prominently will the excellencies of this most conscientious work assert themselves.

This one fact speaks sufficiently in favor of STIELER'S Hand-Atlas: it is published —under A. PETERMANN'S editorial supervision—by JUSTUS PERTHES' world-renowned cartographical establishment at Gotha, of whose Maps BAYARD TAYLOR, as long ago as 1858, testified that in all parts of the world which he had visited, they had proved more correct than any others.

☞ Customers will please bear in mind that the method of describing Kindergarten Gifts, etc., in this Catalogue, is that adopted in America, which differs considerably from the one used in Germany and England. It is very important to remember this when ordering the Gifts, etc. Only the first six Gifts are used in a strictly serial order, the Planes, Sticks, Weaving, and Embroidering materials being introduced at the same time as the Third Gift, so that the work of no two or three consecutive days need be alike.—The designation by numbers (No.) of various articles is entirely arbitrary, and is made solely for the purpose of enabling customers to order the exact kinds they desire to receive.—Requests to take back or exchange goods sent in conformity with orders must be declined.

☞ A. DOUAI'S SERIES OF Rational Readers (see below) are based upon the principles of PESTALOZZI's and FRŒBEL's Systems of Education.

Spelling and Reading.— Lesen.

A. Douai's Series of Rational Readers,

combining the Principles of PESTALOZZI's and FRŒBEL's Systems of Education.—With a systematic classification of English words, by which their Pronunciation, Orthography, and Etymology may be readily taught without the use of any new signs.

I. The Rational Phonetic Primer. An Introduction to the Series of Rational Readers. Boards. 1.20

II. The Rational First Reader. For Phonetic and Elocutional Instruction. Boards. 0.30

III. The Rational Second Reader. For Phonetic, Elocutional, Etymological, and Grammatical Instruction. Boards. 0.50

IV. The Rational Third Reader. For Instruction in the Laws of Pronunciation, Grammar, and Elocution. Boards. 0.80

V. A Reform of the Common English Branches of Instruction. Manual introductory to, and explanatory of, the Series of Rational Readers. Boards. 0.30

The following are among the several new features of the system of Rational teaching as here applied:

1. Phonetic Reading is introduced without the use of new letters, or signs,—such, for instance, as are employed in Dr. LEIGH's Phonetic Method.

2. The difficulties of English pronunciation are reduced to a series of rules for the regular cases, and for the exceptions, analogies and explanations are furnished.

3. The mechanical process of imparting or obtaining instruction is abolished, and from the outset reflection is demanded both from teacher and pupils. The latter are thereby trained to habits of attention and carefulness.

4. The interest of the pupil in his work is maintained not only by selections of the choicest reading, but also by a series of lessons so arranged as to give him at every step a consciousness of the increase of power which he receives, a perception of inherent strength, sufficient to enable him, by his own efforts, to master each succeeding difficulty, as it arises.

5. By assimilating the principles of English Grammar to those of General Grammar, as taught by the science of Comparative Philology, the study of that subject is rendered not only useful, but interesting.

6. By basing all the Common English Branches on Etymological instruction, the language is rendered perspicuous, and its correct and beautiful use is facilitated.

7. While this work may be considered as supplementary to the principles of the Kindergarten education, as established by FRIED. FRŒBEL, and is, therefore, especially adapted to succeed such a course of training, yet it will be found useful to all teachers, whatever may have been the system already pursued by them.

The Manual for Teachers, styled Reform of the Common English Branches, contains information for the teacher, such as could not be embodied in the Preface to the Readers, or in Introductions and Notes.

Wherever REFFELT'S Arithmetics become known, they are preferred to all other Arithmetics, because

1. they are simple, concise and progressive, preparing the way to the higher Arithmetical Branches more surely and intelligently;

2. they are thoroughly practical and freer from rules and matter not adapted to young minds;

3. they contain in a very limited space a greater number and variety of problems;

4. the examples are all original;

5. they give, besides the old Systems of Weights and Measures, a thorough exposition of the Metric System adopted by Congress in 1866, now taught in the National Schools of Great Britain, and in many other foreign countries;

6. they are published in four Books, or in smaller divisions (Parts), which can be procured singly, and at a very low price;

7. The several Keys to REFFELT'S Arithmetics are replete with Hints and Suggestions which must prove invaluable alike to teacher and pupil. They can be used with equal benefit in classes, or without a master.

REFFELT'S Arithmetics are extensively used; they have also been imitated, copied, and reprinted largely by German and American Authors.

—— —— With Foot-notes and Vocabulary. By Dr. P. HENN. Boards. 0.60. Half Roan. 0.80

These two editions of one and the same book differ solely in the typographical arrangement of Text and Notes. In the former, the Notes are given separately on the pages following the 72 pieces of Text; in the latter, each page has at its bottom exactly so much of the Notes as is needed to explain the German Text above. In respect to Vocabulary, etc., both editions are alike.

It is an easy matter to write a long, difficult text-book. To write a short, easy, and satisfactory one, is exceedingly difficult.

Highly competent authorities concur in the opinion that the AHN-HENN Series of German text-books combine all the latter qualities. Moreover, they have been expressly and carefully constructed to form a thoroughly graded, well-balanced whole. Accessories have everywhere given way to essentials. The pupil has been presented with the marrow and fibre of the language taught, so as to enable him, at an early stage, to cut loose from his leading strings.

The German Series begins with AHN's German Reading Charts (closely based upon the first part of the Rudiments), which deal with the letters of the Alphabet in every possible position and combination, in which every word used has a definite meaning, and which are printed in such large type, that with them a whole class can be taught as readily as a single pupil. Then follow AHN's Rudiments of the German Language.

This book has been entirely re-written by Dr. P. HENN, in accordance with the Course of Instruction planned by the Superintendent of Public Schools of New York City, and is designed for the lowest four grades (the 8th, 7th, 6th, and 5th) of pupils in the Public Schools, but may be used with equal advantage in all other educational institutions as well as for private instruction. [For the sake of economy and convenience, AHN'S Rudiments of the German Language has also been issued in two separate divisions, entitled: AHN'S First German Book, 64 pp. (for the 8th and 7th grades), and AHN'S Second German Book, 123 pp. (for the 6th and 5th grades).]

AHN'S Third German Book (for the 4th and 3d grades), and AHN'S Fourth German Book (for the 2nd and 1st grades) complete the Course.

AHN'S First German Reader is intended to be used simultaneously with the Third German Book, and AHN'S Second German Reader is for use with the Fourth German Book.

The chief features of AHN-HENN'S four German Books are: 1) The great ease with which they teach correct German Pronunciation. 2) The simplicity and wide range of the pieces for Translation. 3) The large number of available every-day words and phrases, and the colloquial style mainly adopted, by which German Conversation is taught from the outset. 4) The clearness and brevity of the rules, and the systematic arrangement of the whole. 5) The great variety of matter introduced, by which the pupil's attention is constantly stimulated. 6) The boldness and clearness of the type, and the great quantity of German Script introduced, part of which has been expressly cut for these books, so as to give the pupil ready command over German Handwriting.

The Readers are noticeable for their simplicity and thorough gradation, the copiousness of the Notes, and the absolute completeness of the Vocabularies.

For the convenience of teachers and private learners, Keys are issued to all the above books.

The AHN-HENN text-books for the study of German, are universally recognized to be most exceptionally adapted for use in the public schools, whilst making it possible to dispense with the services of foreign-born German 'special'-teachers.

Aided by the Keys and Reading Charts, the graduates of our Normal Schools and Colleges are enabled to teach German even more successfully than foreign-born teachers, who frequently lack a sufficient command over the English language.

The following are a few of the opinions which State Superintendents of Public Instruction have, of their own accord, communicated to the Publisher.

"Your Reading Charts and elementary books for teaching German and French to beginners, are excellent, and superior to any with which I am acquainted."

Another says: "Your AHN-HENN Series, in my judgment, is superior to all others."

Another remarks: "Your AHN-HENN rudimentary textbooks of German and French form a complete and superior Series for beginners. The Charts will greatly aid the young student. The use of the Series will enable pupils to attain correct pronunciation, and will economize time, labor, and money."

☞ It is a significant fact that in the Public Schools of New York, and other large cities, AHN-HENN'S German and French rudimentary books are now being used in preference to all similar publications.

The necessity of French as a part of modern education is admitted. The teacher requires elementary books which, whilst being thorough, shall be practical and attractive. Such they can be made only by simplicity, clearness, and concision. The AHN-HENN French rudimentary books are admitted by the best authorities to possess these qualities in a high degree.

The French Series begins with AHN'S French Reading Charts, which give the pupil a thorough drilling in French Pronunciation, from the simplest elements to the greatest difficulties. The outline type employed to show the silent letters, saves a vast amount of time and trouble to both teacher and scholars. By them a whole class can be taught simultaneously with the same ease as a single pupil. Then follows AHN'S French Primer, which deals exhaustively with French Pronunciation. This is succeeded by the First Course of the Practical and Easy Method of Learning the French Language, and by the Second Course. Then come AHN'S First French Reader and AHN'S Second French Reader.

It is unnecessary to say more than that all the qualities previously claimed for the AHN-HENN German Series, are equally claimed for the French Series, and that what is elsewhere stated of the AHN-HENN German Series, viz., that the graduates of our Normal Schools, after a short course of study, can conduct elementary instruction in German as well as native Germans themselves, is equally true of the AHN-HENN French Series, for the instruction in French.

NOTICE. The undersigned is resolved to expend his best energies in the interest of Education. During the past ten years he has been actively engaged in bringing before the Public elementary helps calculated to promote that object.

Great success, he is happy to state, has rewarded his endeavors, and his Educational Publications have been everywhere favorably received, not only for their intrinsic merits, but also on account of their mechanical execution, and their very moderate prices,

Far from considering his labor ended, however, he will earnestly continue to devote himself to the improvement of text-books, and the furtherance of other means of imparting knowledge; and he will thankfully receive hints and suggestions having that purpose in view.

KIDDLE and SCHEM'S

Cyclopædia of Education.

PROSPECTUS.

There is no doubt that one of the greatest wants, at the present time, in the educational literature, not only of the United States but of Great Britain, is a Cyclopædia of Education. The value of cyclopædias as works of reference on all questions on which information is needed, is becoming, from day to day, better understood and more generally recognized; and, consequently, the number of such works has of late rapidly increased.

Still, although the educated classes of the United States now have access to a number of excellent general cyclopædias, as well as to such as are especially devoted to particular branches of science, educators, school-officers, and the large class of persons who take a general interest in educational questions and pursuits, seek in vain for any work in the English language, to which they may refer for the information of which they are constantly in need.

Germany, which in this respect is in advance of all other countries, already possesses several educational cyclopædias, among which the large work of SCHMID, in ten volumes, is the most important and valuable of its kind ever published. In no country in the world is the diffusion of knowledge, general and technical, more important, or more highly appreciated by the people, than in the United States; and hence it is quite time that this country had its own Cyclopædia of Education.

The work which the undersigned proposes to present to the public, will consist of a single volume of about 800 pp., 8vo.; but it will be comprehensive and complete, treating, in alphabetical order, of all the subjects in which teachers, school-officers, and educators of every class may be supposed to take an interest. The articles will embrace the following general topics:—

1. Theory of Education and Instruction, including school organization, management, and discipline, also methods of instruction,—pedagogy and didactics.
2. Governmental Policy in regard to Education, including such subjects as compulsory education, rate-bills, truant-laws, etc., etc.
3. The Administration of Schools and School-Systems—embracing supervision, school examinations, teachers' qualifications and salaries, school architecture, etc.
4. The History of Education, including an account of all the prominent plans and methods of school-organization and instruction, that have been proposed, or that are at present in vogue.
5. Biographical Sketches of distinguished educators of this and other countries.
6. School Statistics, relating to
   a) Schools, etc. of different countries, states, cities, religious denominations, etc.
   b) Different kinds of Schools, as public schools, parochial schools, private schools; special or technical schools, seminaries or high schools, Colleges and Universities, Kindergartens, etc.
7. Educational Literature and Bibliography. As the immense amount of material to be condensed in the compass of a single volume, will necessitate the greatest possible brevity, special attention will be given, throughout the work, to literary references. That is to say, the works which give the fullest and most trustworthy information on important subjects treated, will be named at the end of the articles. In this way, the Cyclopædia will be rendered a complete guide to teachers in studying the standard works in the educational literature of this and other countries.

In the preparation of these articles, it is intended to enlist the best educational talent and experience in this country,—a country which, it will be acknowledged, is especially distinguished for the activity, intelligence, and ability, with which educational enterprises have been carried on. Contributions are also expected from prominent scholars and educators in foreign countries. There can be no doubt, therefore, that this work, when completed, will be characterized not only by fullness and accuracy of statement, as well as completeness of information, but by literary excellence in composition and style.

The names of the gentlemen who have undertaken the task of editing this work, are in themselves a sufficient guaranty of the creditable character of the work when completed.

Mr. HENRY KIDDLE, City Superintendent of Common Schools in NEW YORK, has been connected during a period of more than twenty-five years with popular education, and possesses a ripe experience not only as superintendent but as author and teacher; and standing, for so long a period, at the head of the largest school system in the United States, he has had rare opportunities of making himself thoroughly familiar with all matters pertaining to the theory and practice of instruction, as well as the other subjects to be treated in the Cyclopædia.

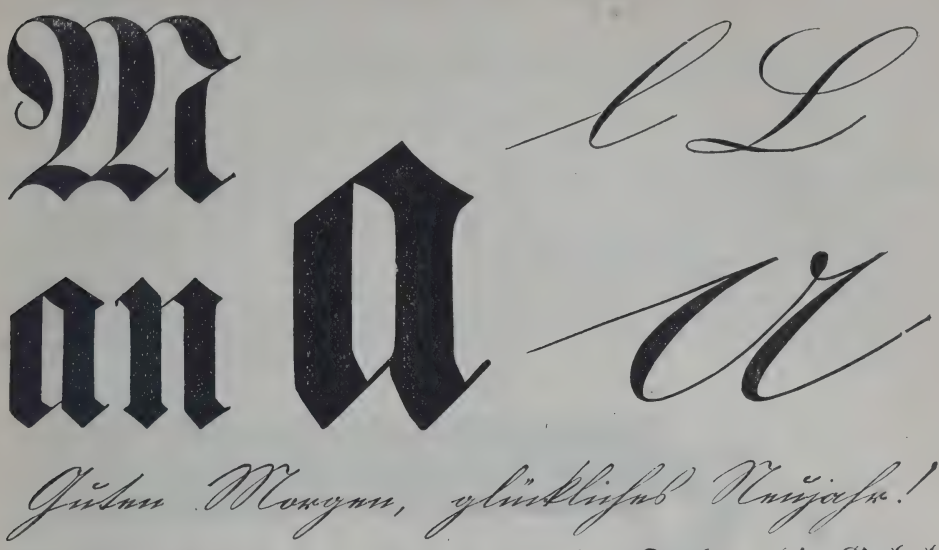
Of Professor ALEXANDER J. SCHEM, the Associate-Editor, it is proper to say that, since the year 1851, when he commenced his career in this country, he has had a varied experience, both educational and literary, especially fitting him for the work now undertaken. Among the positions held by him since the year mentioned, may be enumerated that of Professor in Dickinson College, CARLISLE, Pa., and his present position of Assistant Superintendent of Schools in this City. Besides, for nine years, he was connected with the editorial staff of the N. Y. Tribune, and a frequent contributor to other journals. His cyclopædic experience has been especially extensive, as contributor to both editions of the New American Cyclopædia, and to the successive volumes of the Annual Cyclopædia, also to MCCLINTOCK AND STRONG'S Biblical, Theological, and Ecclesiastical Cyclopædia, and as editor in chief of the German American Cyclopædia, in 11 vols., published from 1869 to 1874. Mr. SCHEM has also made our American systems of Education, as well as those of foreign countries, a subject of special study.



The publisher, fully conscious of the great importance of the work herein announced, cannot but feel proud of the fact, that to him has been intrusted, by the Editors, the publication of the Cyclopædia of Education, recognizing, as they have, in this manner, the care evinced by him in the educational and other works issued from his establishment.

To the foregoing prospectus, the undersigned wishes to add the assurance that he is resolved to contribute his best energies and resources to the production of a work, that shall reflect credit not only upon the literature, but on the publishing enterprise, of this, his adopted country.

E. Steiger,

Importer and Bookseller, Publisher and Printer,

22 & 24 Frankfort Street, New York.

E. Steiger's Cataloge, die hiermit aufgeführt sind, sollen einerseits dem Publicum eine Uebersicht seines Lagers in den verschiedenen Fächern der Literatur vermitteln, von Schriften also, welche gewöhnlich vorräthig sind und daher in den meisten Fällen sofort geliefert werden können, andererseits aber auch als Nachweis über die besten und hierzulande brauchbarsten Bücher ꝛc. in den betreffenden Literaturzweigen dienen.

Da diese Sortiments-Cataloge jetzt zu einer beträchtlichen Zahl angewachsen sind, und durch neue Bearbeitungen und Vervollständigungen fort und fort umfangreicher werden, so können dieselben fernerhin in der Regel nur gegen Einsendung der beibemerkten geringen Beiträge — zur theilweisen Deckung der Herstellungskosten und Frankatur — versandt werden.

Alle bisher rückhaltslos gemachten Offerten, gratis zu versenden, werden hierdurch widerrufen.

E. Steiger's Catalogues

enumerated hereafter are intended, on the one hand, to keep the public informed of what he has in stock in the various departments of literature; of books, therefore, which are usually on hand, and can be at once supplied. On the other hand, these Catalogues serve as a guide to the best publications in their special branches of literature, and such as are most serviceable in this country.

These Catalogues having now reached a considerable number, and being continually made more comprehensive by additions and revisions, they can, for the future as a rule, be sent only on receipt of the subjoined nominal prices which simply cover in part the expenses of production and the prepayment of postage. All unconditional offers hitherto made to send them gratis, are hereby withdrawn.

Berry's Analysis and Parsing Book; or, Analysis and Parsing in Tabulated Forms. By J. BERRY, A. M. In fine beveled cloth, ...60

The object of this Manual is to reduce Parsing and the Analysis of Sentences to a system at once rational and comprehensive, yet simple and attractive to the learner. It is claimed that the author has accomplished this by means of a series of Analytical Parsing Tables which furnish the model for analyzing and parsing any sentence in the language.

The work also contains numerous extracts from the best writers. Teachers will find them the most valuable collection of grammatical exercises ever published. It may be used with any grammar.

From the late Prof. James Hadley, of Yale College.

The plan of your work (BERRY'S ANALYSIS AND PARSING BOOK) is well considered and thoroughly worked out. To teachers and learners it will be a valuable aid in the systematic analysis of English sentences.

The Phrenological Journal and Science of Health, having been combined, will be published as one magazine with the above title, and cover the ground hitherto occupied by them as distinct publications.

The Science of Human Character, the Laws which govern the Physical Organism, and the Relations of Mental and Physical Health to External Conditions are the grand themes which belong to the special province of this magazine, and are treated of in it from points of view appreciated by no other serial publication.

PHRENOLOGY unfolds the relations of Mind and its physical instrumentalities; shows how the multifold diversities of human character and capacity are related to universal laws, and by a positive analysis of individual mentality ministers to individual usefulness, designating special aptitude, and indicating the methods by which mental and physical deficiencies may be remedied. As an agency in training the young, in correcting and reforming the vicious, and in controlling the insane, its value can not be estimated.

It treats also of ETHNOLOGY, or the Natural History of Man; contains practical articles on PHYSIOLOGY, DIET, EXERCISE, and the LAWS of LIFE and HEALTH; Portraits, Sketches, and Biographies of the leading Men and Women of the World, besides much general and useful information on the leading topics of the day. It is intended to be the most interesting and instructive FAMILY MAGAZINE published.

The Phrenological Journal and Science of Health will always aim to keep pace with the march of events, and while "holding fast to all that is good," to instruct the public mind in those things which are new and true.

1 vol. 12mo, cloth extra, gilt head.....$3 00

"Mr. Platt has worked out an idea so striking for its attractiveness and utility that, perceiving it, we at once go to work wondering that somebody else had not executed it before him. He has gone over the vast and superb areas of John Ruskin's Writings, and cutting out one block here and another there, as it suited his purpose, has put all these parts together again into a literary mosaic, constituting a clear and harmonious system of art principles, wherein Ruskin all the while is the teacher. He has reduced Ruskin to a code. On the whole, we see not what this book lacks of being a complete textbook of the Gospel of Art according to St. John Ruskin.—Christian Union.

Attorneys' Blanks

FOR THE STATE OF OHIO.

Attorneys, in general, know the importance and convenience of an assortment of legal blanks, and where the accuracy of the blanks are known, they need no further guaranty. No matter how soiled, stained by age, or defaced they become, they are always preferable to the best and most attractive paper, and will be used whenever possible.

Our blanks are the most accurate, economical, and uniform of any blanks ever manufactured or for sale in any market. They have been prepared by a thoroughly competent attorney of known ability, and are not only guaranteed the most perfect and labor-saving blanks in use, but also as the finest production of their kind ever upon exhibition or sale. We call attention specially to the following points of excellence and superiority, viz:

All our blanks are printed from the finest electrotype plates;
They are printed upon a special grade of extra tough white paper;
They cite the authorities from which they have been drawn;
They each have full instructions in statute, report, and common law;
They all (though of different sizes) fold to the same size for filing;
When folded a printed endorsement contains an entire synopsis of contents.

☞The cheapest series of Justices' Blanks ever published.☜

Special attention has been given by a well-known and thoroughly competent attorney to blanks for this court. The officers being compelled to purchase their own blanks has rendered it necessary to produce as economical a series as possible; at the same time many of these officers can be greatly assisted by printed forms. Where their official duties are light, printed forms are indispensable, and their use highly essential to accuracy. Where the justices' official duties are great, they become his greatest assistant in affording him a rapid and accurate mode of discharging those duties.

They do, in all cases, save those who use them a vast amount of the labor of much writing. By the use of these forms you not only insure accuracy, but also insure never missing a fee, fee blanks being printed on every form.

The American Catalogue.

WORK upon the AMERICAN CATALOGUE is now so well advanced that it is hoped shortly to complete the compilation of titles, and to enter upon the final arrangement and revisions of the accumulated material, preparatory to sending it to the printer. As already announced, it has been thought best that the Finding List should be comprised in two volumes, large octavo, the first of which it is hoped to publish during the coming fall as a Centennial volume, and the second during the following year. The work will cover all American books in print and for sale, including English volumes with American imprints. The first volume will be a General Alphabetical Catalogue, in which the title proper will be given, with details of publisher, size, price, etc., under the author's name; and, in the case of a wide range of popular books, such as novels, juveniles, and the like, commonly known by the title, under the leading word or words of the same; while the second volume will be a Subject Index, also on the dictionary system. The classification will, of course, be based on a scientific analysis of the field of knowledge, which is the field of book-making, but the subdivisions will be arranged in their alphabetical, and not their logical order, for convenience of reference. Thus, the general division of Natural Philosophy will contain under that entry only the books treating the subject comprehensively, with references to all the subdivisions, such as Acoustics, Barometer, Electricity, Heat, Magnetism, Mechanics, etc., which will be found in their alphabetical place. This follows the system of the Boston Public Library as regards subject-entries, and by carrying out the analysis so as to have the minimum of titles under each subject-entry, any line of books can be most easily traced. The cross references will be made so complete that the bookseller will be referred at once to the proper subject-entry, under whatever name he ooks for a given department; so that the two volumes, together with the Annual, which ranges with the Catalogue, will enable him to find immediately a book on any given subject, or by any given author, or under any given popular title, or of any given publisher.

The intelligent bookseller must see at once the benefit of having this work behind his counter. Sales are frequently lost because the dealer does not know the book required, or can not identify it from the title given. A buyer who can look over the full list of books on any subject, or by a given author, will often be induced to make purchases he would not otherwise. Thus, the smallest store would, by the aid of the AMERICAN CATALOGUE, make enough extra sales in a short time to pay for the full cost of the two volumes. In effect, it gives the dealer command of the fullest stock, however his own may be restricted by his lack of capital. The work is, of course, a necessity to any library worthy the name, and will be found a useful reference work in colleges and schools, to the private collector, to the teacher, or to the general reader. It is a work of national importance, which will present, in connection with the National Centennial, a systematic catalogue of current American publications, and thus represent our achievements in this department to the world at large. In this work we therefore invite the co-operation not only of the trade, but of all interested in American bibliography.

The price of this work will depend upon its cost, which can not be exactly foretold, but will not exceed $25 for the two volumes. These will not be sold separately. Subscriptions will be received at this rate per copy, and in case the work can be issued at any lower price, subscribers will receive the benefit of the reduction. There will be no discount on the published price, which will be raised on publication. We request, on subscribing, a payment of twenty per cent, to assist us in meeting the very large advance expenses of preparation; the balance to be paid one half on the publication of the first, and one half on the publication of the second volume. In this way the payments can not exceed the small sum of $10 per copy at any one time; and, by paying these amounts at intervals of a year, they will scarcely be felt by the subscriber.

The amount of research and clerical labor involved is very great, so that we must ask the trade to guarantee us against loss by sending in as many subscriptions as possible at once. The appended list of subscriptions shows that we are still far short of the minimum amount necessary to insure us against positive loss. Those receiving this circular are requested not only to subscribe themselves, if they have not already done so, but to give what assistance they can by urging the matter upon others. Subscriptions, drafts, and all communications relative to the business department of the Catalogue should be addressed to

The Literary News

A Monthly Journal of Current Literature.

PUBLISHED BY

(Space allotted for Dealer's Imprint.)

AUGUST, 1876.

TO THE RETAIL BOOK TRADE.

Retail Booksellers, News Agents, and Dealers generally, who desire a handy, cheap, and profitable advertising medium for the latest books in the market, will find the best adapted to that purpose.

The Literary News

This publication (now in its fifth year) has reached a circulation of over 25,000 copies, and is used by hundreds of booksellers, from Maine to California.

It will be issued as heretofore, at the beginning of every month, with not less than eight pages, embracing Editorial Notes, Literary Intelligence, a full list, compiled expressly for its columns from the records of the PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY, containing the titles and prices of the PRINCIPAL BOOKS PUBLISHED DURING THE PREVIOUS MONTH and announcements of Forthcoming Works for the Current Month, so classified as to show at a glance all the new publications in the various departments of literature, and one page of general advertisements, which will not conflict with the interest of the trade. It will be printed on tinted paper like previous editions, but of superior quality, and being of light texture, it can be sent with any book, magazine, paper, letter, circular, etc., with a small increase of postage.

It is certain that dealers who will adopt this cheap and effective mode for advertising their establishments, will find themselves amply repaid in a short time, and we have the testimony of many dealers who have not only increased the sales from their counters, but have found the orders for books not in stock highly remunerative.

Terms for Editions with Imprint, invariably payable in advance.

100 Copies for three months,	$6 50	500 Copies for three months,	$19 00
250 " " "	12 00	1000 " " "	36 00

Special terms for large quantities.

☞ As the December issue will hereafter be published as a double (Christmas) number, regular subscribers at the above rates, who fail to send their special order, will receive only one half the quantity for this month. Special terms for the Christmas number will be announced in the Publishers' Weekly during the month of November.

Extra front headings (instead of the adopted style of imprint), with special name of paper and display, for which there is space above the rules inclosing date, are charged $1 extra per edition.

Any quantity from 100 to 1000 copies will be sent post-paid, but for larger quantities, at the reduced rates, postage or expressage will be charged.

Dealers who desire an edition for trial before subscribing, can be supplied at the following rates:

100 Copies for any month except December,	$2 50	500 Copies for any month except December,	$8 00
250 " " " "	5 00	1000 " " " "	15 00

Orders must be received by the 30th of the month previous to which the subscription begins.

No orders filled without payment in advance, as the numerous small amounts will neither bear the trouble nor expense of sending bills or of repeated statements, and collecting. Remittances should be made either by Post-Office Order, Draft on New-York, or Registered Letter.

All Orders should be addressed,

RICHARD BRINCKERHOFF, Manager,

Office of PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY; or Box 4295, New-York.
